ONE DOLLAR A YEAR

HOPKINSVILLE, CHRISTIAN COUNTY KENTUCKY FRIDAY MAY 20 1904

VOLUME XXXIV, NO. 32

BISHOP BECKWITH

DELIVERS A DISCOURSE ON CONFIRMATION.

Large Class Was Confirmed
Last Night at Grace Church.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

Before a large and deeply interested congregation at Grace church last night, the Rt. Rev. Dr. C. M. Beckwith, bishop of Alabama, delivered an excellent discourse, his subject being "Confirmation." Bishop Beckwith has rare gifts as a speaker and his three addresses in Hopkinsville have been heard with great pleasure and profit. The bishop last night confirmed the following class: Berta Elizabeth Gant, Frances Bachman, Narcissus Mansfield McKee, Sarah Russell Abbott, Ora Beard, Lea Over-shiner, Bessie Clark, Mary Coleman, Fairleigh Ware, Byron Meador, Mrs. Upshaw Buckner, Mrs. Rigby, Mr. Schamp and Mrs. Schamp. The service was impressive.

Secretary Saunders.

John J. Saunders returned yesterday from Hopkinsville, where he attended the diocesan council of the Episcopal church, and was elected secretary of the diocese to succeed the Rev. Dr. M. M. Benton, of this city. Mr. Saunders is the first layman on whom the honor was ever conferred in the diocese of Kentucky, and the distinction is one for which his friends are offering the warmest congratulations. In connection with the honor of being elected the first lay secretary, Mr. Saunders was appointed business manager of the Bishop's Letter, a monthly publication of the Episcopal church.

He is one of the most popular business men of the city. —Courier-Journal.

Mr. Harned Announces.

Elsewhere in this impression of the Kentucky New Era is the formal announcement of Mr. James J. Harned as a candidate for magistrate in Third district. He is a good citizen, a good business man and a good Democrat.

CASE IS CONTINUED.

The case of William E. Neal, Jr., charged with the murder of James K. Shrader, at Louisville, will not be tried before the summer recess of the Jefferson county circuit court. After much sparring between counsel, a continuance was granted for the defense and the case set for trial September 26. Absent witnesses, according to counsel for the defense, forced the motion for continuance.

Dr. Board Appointed.

Gov. Beckham has appointed Dr. Milton Board, superintendent of the Western Kentucky asylum as a delegate to the National Conference of Charities and Corrections to be held at Portland, Me., June 15-22.

Knights Templar.

The fifty-seventh annual convocation of the Grand Commandery of Kentucky, Knights Templar, in session at Frankfort, is attended by 2,500 people from all over the state. The usual parade, drill by the Louisville manders, No. 1, receptions and entertainments characterized yesterday's proceedings. Ashland and pond have extended invitations to a meeting next year.

BETHEL COLLEGE

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES
TONIGHT.

Dr. Mullins Will Deliver the Baccalaureate Address
Tuesday Evening.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

The commencement exercises of Bethel Female college will begin on Friday evening, May 20th, when a reception will be given the pupils by Prof. and Mrs. Edmund Harrison. On Saturday evening at 8 o'clock the graduates will give a recital. Monday evening at the same hour there will be pupils recital.

Tuesday evening at the Baptist church will be the baccalaureate address by Dr. Mullins, president of the Southern Baptist Theological seminary at Louisville.

On Wednesday evening at the college chapel the conferring of degrees and honors to the students.

The public is cordially invited to attend these exercises.

Pembroke School.

The commencement week announcements of the Pembroke Graded school follow:

Thursday evening, May 19—"Phyllis, the Farmer's Daughter," an operatic cantata, will be given by the preparatory and high school.

Friday evening, May 20—Third annual commencement exercises, Pembroke High school. Two graduates. Class address by Prof. H. Clay Smith, of Hopkinsville.

Programs will be given at the opera house.

DEATH'S SUMMONS

(From Thursday's Daily.)

Mrs. Cora Lindley, wife of W. C. Lindley, a prominent farmer living on the Fairview pike, died quite suddenly last night about 11 o'clock of heart disease. She was thirty-six years of age and a devout member of the Little River Christian church. Her husband and four children, one a baby two weeks old, survive her. The funeral services will be held in the Little River church tomorrow morning, probably at 10 o'clock. Interment at Hopewell cemetery.

Miss Cassie Futrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Futrell, of the Roaring Springs vicinity, died in the asylum yesterday of measles complicated with pneumonia. She was about thirty-five years of age and had been in the institution for about two years. The body was taken to Roaring Springs for burial.

A Startling Test.

To save a life, Dr. T. G. Merritt, of No. Mehoopany, Pa., made a startling test resulting in a wonderful cure. He writes, "a patient was attacked with violent hemorrhages, caused by ulceration of the stomach. I had often found Electric Bitters excellent for acute stomach and liver troubles so I prescribed them. The patient gained from the first, and has not had an attack in fourteen months." Electric Bitters are positively guaranteed for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation and Kidney troubles. Try them. Only 50c at L. L. Elgin's and Cook & Higgins.

ONE BISHOP.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 19.—The Methodist General Conference yesterday voted for eight bishops, but elected only one, J. F. Berry, editor of the Epworth, who received more than two-thirds of the entire vote cast on the first ballot. One other ballot was taken, but the result of this will not be known until morning. One hundred and seventy received votes on the first ballot.

KILLED BY A MULE

FATE OF A NEGRO NEAR GARRETSBURG.

Caught Foot In Trace Chain and Was Dragged to Death.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

Tom Davis, a well known negro farmer residing on the farm of Mr. George W. McKnight, near Garrettsburg, was killed by a mule today at noon.

It is supposed that he put his foot in the trace chain of the mule's harness to aid him in mounting the animal, which he was going to ride from the field where he was at work to his house and that the mule started off suddenly and threw him down and his foot becoming entangled in the chain he was dragged to death by the frightened animal. When found, Davis had been dragged about half a mile and his body was terribly bruised and cut by having come in contact with rocks over which the mule dragged him. He had been dead possibly half an hour when found. He was a negro who stood well in the community where he resided, being an industrious, sober and well behaved man. He leaves a wife and child.

A Sure Thing.

It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but that is not altogether true. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption is a sure cure for all lung and throat troubles. Thousands can testify to that. Mrs. C. S. VanMetre of Shepherdstown, W. Va., says: "I had a severe case of Bronchitis and for a year tried everything I heard of, but got no relief. One bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery then cured me absolutely." It's infallible for Croup, Whooping Cough, Grip, Pneumonia and consumption. Try it. Its guaranteed by L. L. Elgin, Cook & Higgins, druggists. Trial bottles free. Reg. sizes 50c and $1.00.

FELL OVER A FENCE

AND SUSTAINED FATAL INJURIES.

Macedonia Matters Tersely
Told.—Some Happenings
At Sinking Fork.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

Macedonia, May 18.—Mrs. Andrew English, while running to head off a cow, at her home here about ten days ago, fell over a low fence and striking on her head broke her skull. When picked up she was unconscious. She regained consciousness only at short intervals and today—the tenth day after the accident—death came to her relief. She leaves one son, three daughters and a large number of friends to mourn her departure.

We are glad to learn that Mr. Enos Gray, the victim of a copperhead snake's bite, who was thought to be dying, is now much improved.

Noble Robinson returned last Tuesday from Edgewater, Colorado. He is afflicted with inflammatory rheumatism.

Mr. Marsh Fletcher and wife and Mrs. Sarah White, of Horace, Ky., were the guests of Elder John W. McCarrroll Saturday night.

Mr. D. E. Fowler and wife visited friends and relatives in Macedonia Saturday and Sunday.

A new girl arrived at the home of Mr. Bob Jones last Friday.

The mother of Elder G. W. Davis is at the point of death, and the end may come at any moment. She is a victim of consumption.

A heavy frost in the Clifty creek bottom on the morning of May the 15th somewhat surprised the farmers but fortunately it did no serious damage.

Macedonia will soon organize a bible class to meet at 8 o'clock each Sunday evening.

The farmers are about done planting corn in this section.

—White Man.

Sinking Fork Notes.

Sinking Fork, May 17.—Farmers at this place are through planting corn and are very busy preparing for setting out a tobacco crop.

Miss Berta Hiser, of Hopkinsville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. C. Stevens.

Rev. G. W. Gant filled his regular appointment at the Christian church here Sunday.

Mrs. James Quarles, of your city, spent last week in this vicinity.

Rev. Lindsey Spurlin will preach at the Baptist church here next Sunday at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Riley Wood died at his home near Gracey Sunday morning, May 15, at seven o'clock. He had been confined to his room for some time by an attack of measles when unexpectedly pneumonia set in and death soon resulted from the combination. His body was brought here Monday afternoon and was interred at the Wood burying ground. Mr. Wood had been a member of the Sinking Fork Baptist church for several years. A mother, father, brother and three sisters are left to mourn their loss. But weep not, only remember that Riley is at home with the dear sister, and they are waiting your coming, where there will be no more parting and sorrow is unknown. —Hillman.

Misses Coleman and Bachman, of Hopkinsville, are expected to arrive in the city the last of the week to be the guests of Miss Bertha Denhardt. —Bowling Green News.

JAPANESE LOSE TWO VESSELS.

Cruisers Collide in Fog and One Sinks.—
Battleship Destroyed While Removing a Mine.

TOKIO, May 19.—Admiral Togo reports that on May 16 the cruisers Kasaga and Yoshino collided in a fog at Port Arthur. The Yoshino sank and only ninety were saved. On the same day the battleship Hatsusa struck a Russian mine and sank.

CHEE FOO, May 19.—The Japanese have cleared the entrance to Port Arthur. The Russian fleet is still in the harbor.

FORTY ARRESTS IN SMALLPOX CASE.

(Special to New Era.)

CLARKSVILLE, Tenn., May 19.—Deputy Sheriff Walker and several special officers went to Brady's railroad camp, four miles from Clarksville, on the Hopkinsville division of the Tennessee Central, and arrested every person there, forty in all, on the charge of violating the quarantine laws and the utter disregard of the instructions of the physician attending a negro woman who contracted smallpox. Nine of the number who had been exposed to the disease were quarantined and the others released.

HOPKINSVILLE LOSES FOURTEEN INNING GAME TO CLARKSVILLE.

Under a menacing sky, Hopkinsville and Clarksville played at Athletic park Tuesday afternoon a nerve-racking 14-inning game, which the Tennesseans won by the score of 3 to 2. It was the first of a series of three contests between the ancient rivals and opened the local season.

Despite the inclement weather the attendance was good and the spectators were kept tingling with excitement throughout the game. It was a hard game to lose, for the Browns had the game in hand up to the ninth inning when clever bunting netted the visitors a run which tied the score.

ACTION DEFERRED

AS REQUEST OF SEVERAL CITIES.

Site For K. of P. Widows' and Orphans' Home Not Yet Selected.

(Special to New Era.)
LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 18.—At the request of Louisville and several other cities which are anxious to secure the widows' and orphans' home, the board of control of the Knights of Pythias meeting decided to defer final action on the matter until August 20, when the board will meet again during the national encampment of the Uniform Rank. None of the bids submitted at the meeting were opened, and all the cities interested will be notified that bids will not be opened until noon, August 20. Those present at the meeting were: W. C. Quinby, of Dayton, president of the board; T. P. Satterwhite, of Louisville, vice president; John C. Thomasson, of Henderson, secretary; R. G. Fitch, of Winchester, treasurer; A. C. Green, of Lexington; P. B. Eubank, of Bowling Green; L. H. Davis, of Hopkinsville, and Ruby Laf-foon, of Madisonville.

The competition among the cities of the state promises to be lively and eight cities are already after the home, Louisville, Lexington, Newport, Bowling Green, Paducah, Hopkinsville, Danville and Henderson have said that they will make offers, and others may enter. Men representing each city were present yesterday to speak for their city, but none was heard. The matter will be referred to the new officers of the Commercial club after the election Tuesday, and it is expected that they will take action. Under the rules as adopted by the grand lodge, the board of control is authorized to solicit bids, offerings, donations of money, land or other property, which will be accepted when at least $25,000 is in the hands of the board of control. The city which is selected for the home must offer a bonus of at least $3,000 in money or its equivalent.

The board yesterday deposited the $12,000 now in its charge in three local banks, and will draw three per cent interest on it until it is used for building the home.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat, cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders. Kodol is not only a perfect digestant but a tissue building tonic as well. Renewed health, perfect strength and increased vitality follow its use.

A Russian torpedo transport was blown up by coming in contact with a Russian mine. Many lives were lost.

Exposure
To cold drafts of air, to keen and cutting winds, sudden changes of temperature, scanty clothing, undue exposure of the throat and neck after public speaking and singing, bring on coughs and colds. Ballard's Horehound Syrup is the best cure.

Mrs. A. Barr, Houston, Texas, writes Jan. 31, 1902: "One bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup cured me of a very bad cough. It is very pleasant to take." 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold by Ray & Fowler.

When the Sap Rises

Weak lungs should be careful. Coughs and colds are dangerous then. One Minute Cough Cure cures coughs and colds and gives strength to the lungs. Mrs. G. E. Fenner, of Marion, Ind., says: "I suffered with a cough until I run down in weight from 148 to 92 lbs. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by R. C. Hardwick.

A Cure For Piles.

"I had a bad case of piles," says G. F. Carter, of Atlanta, Ga., "and consulted a physician who advised me to try a box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. I purchased a box and was entirely cured. It is a splendid cure for piles, giving relief instantly, and I heartily recommend it to all sufferers." DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is unequalled for its healing qualities. Eczema and other skin diseases, also sores, cuts, burns and wounds of every kind are quickly cured by it. Sold by R. C. Hardwick.

Miss Marion Gorham, of Marshall, Mich., is dead, the doctors say, from overjoy.

Growing Aches and Pains.

Mrs. Josie Sumner, Bremont, Tex., writes, April 15, 1902: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment in my family for three years. I would not be without it in the house. I have used it on my little girl for growing pains and aches in her knees. It cured her right away. I have also used it for frost bitten feet with good success. It is the best liniment I ever used." 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold by Ray & Fowler.

"Do It Today."

The time-worn injunction, "never put off 'til tomorrow what you can do today," is now generally presented in this form: "Do it today!" That is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking cough or de-moralizing cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks. Take some reliable remedy for it today—and let that remedy be Dr. Boschee's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough or cold, and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely. No matter how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. New trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

SINKING A SHAFT

GRACEY MINING COMPANY AT WORK.

The Willis Case.—Thomas' Escape.—Interesting Happenings in Trigg.

(From Friday's Daily.)
The Gracey Mining company has begun the work of sinking a shaft on the ground they have leased near Buffalo church in Trigg county. It is claimed that a number of experts, including a state geologist, have thoroughly examined their holdings, and the prospects for lead and zinc are considered the finest in this region.

The most important case on the docket for the May term of the Trigg circuit court, which convenes Monday, is the commonwealth vs. Lawrence Willis, charged with the murder of Lieut. Johnston. Besides Sims & Thomas and Kelly & Kelly, Judge James Breathitt, of this city, and Hon. Chas. K. Wheeler, of Paducah, will assist in the defense.

Commonwealth's Attorney Denny P. Smith has accepted an invitation to deliver an address June 2 before the Alumni association of State college at Lexington.

The Cadiz Water company has received its charter and has elected its officers as follows: E. E. Wash, president; D. L. Grinter, vice president, and J. W. McKinney. They will begin putting in the new plant at once.

John Sherman Thomas, of Trigg county, escaped from the penitentiary at Eddyville last Saturday night. Young Thomas, according to the Cadiz Record, shot and killed Alfred Bridges near Maple Grove in March, 1902, and at the February term of court, 1903, he was convicted and given ten years in the penitentiary. He began serving his sentence about a year ago, and was regarded as one of the best prisoners within the prison walls.

The Trigg county fiscal court has contracted for the erection of a new $7,600 jail on the site of the present old jail. It will be a handsome two-story, up-to-date brick building with a jailer's residence attached. The work on the new building will begin the first of June and will be completed by September 1.

Quick Arrest.

Good Spirits.

Good spirits don't all come from Kentucky. Their main source is the liver—and all the fine spirits over made in the Blue Grass state could not remedy a bad liver or the hundred-and-one ill effects it produces. You can't have good spirits and a bad liver at the same time. Your liver must be in fine condition if you would feel buoyant, happy and hopeful, bright of eye, light of step, vigorous and successful in your pursuits. You can put your liver in fine condition by using Green's August Flower—the greatest of all medicines for the liver and stomach and a certain cure for dyspepsia or indigestion. It has been a favorite household remedy for over thirty-five years. August Flower will make your liver healthy and active and thus insure you a liberal supply of "good spirits." Trial size, 25c; regular bottles, 75c. At all druggists.

Commencing Sunday, May 1st, the Tennessee Central will run a special excursion train to Nashville every Sunday until further notice. INVITATION FROM ELGIN

Leading Hopkinsville Druggist Urges You To Try Hyomei, the Guaranteed Cure for Catarrh

Any reader of the New Era who suffers with catarrh, or who is subject to catarrhal colds, is invited to call on a complete Hyomei outfit on approval. So confident is he that Hyomei will cure the worst and most deep-seated case of catarrh that he will furnish full month's treatment of Hyomei on trial.

While it would be unreasonable to expect a chronic case of catarrh, which has been growing worse for years, could be cured within a month, yet he feels sure that the thirty days' treatment will convince the user that Hyomei is infallible in driving catarrhal poison from the system. There is no dangerous stomach drug-giving when Hyomei is used. Simply breathe its healing balsams through the nose and the germ-killing and health-giving air will penetrate to the most remote cells in the air passages of the head, throat and lungs, and drive catarrhal poison from the system. Nothing else will so quickly cure a cold in the head or stop an ordinary cough.

Singers and public speakers will find Hyomei invaluable. It strengthens the voice and gives it a rich, clear tone. Catarrhal deafness is cured when Hyomei and the special Hyomei balm are used.

The complete outfit costs only one dollar, and if, after using, you can say that it did not help you L. L. Elgin will return your money.

Foley's Kidney Cure if taken in time affords security from all kidney and bladder diseases.

Methodist Bishops Retired. Presbyterian General Assembly Meets This Week.

Between $50,000 and $80,000 was subscribed at the Baptist convention at Nashville Saturday to the endowment fund of the Southern Baptist Theological seminary, of Louisville. The Norton family, of Louisville, gave $4,500. Among the Kentucky subscribers were Rev. Dr. J. N. Prestridge, Louisville, $100; Rev. Dr. W. W. Hamilton, Louisville, $250; B. F. Proctor, Bowling Green, $1,000; J. H. Anderson, Hopkinsville, $500; M. J. Farris, Danville, $1,000; G. H. Nunnally, Georgetown, $1,000.

The committee on work among the negroes made its report, and was received and adopted in a harmonious manner. The committee considered the Virginia memorial asking for the appointment of a commission to study the problem of uplifting the negro in all its phases. The committee's agreement provides for the appointment of a representative from each state to confer with the home mission board with regard to places for carrying on the work. The board heretofore directed that the work and its policy be not interfered with Kansas City, Mo., was selected as the next meeting place.

Bishops Retired.

The Methodist general conference at Los Angeles retired from active church work six of its venerable bishops as follows: Edward G. Andrews, of New York; John M. Weld-on, of Cincinnati; John H. Vincents, of Zurich, Switzerland; Willard F. Mallieu, of Boston; Cyrus D. Foss, of Philadelphia, and Stephen M. Merrill by request. The ballot on the retirement of the bishops was taken at noon Saturday and while the result is closely guarded and will not be made public until the tellers report to the conference today, it is said with assurance that the first five bishops named will be placed on the superannuated list. The conference also accepted the request of Bishop Merrill for retirement. The action of the conference, together with two vacancies, makes necessary the election of eight bishops by the present conference. It is also believed that the two new missionary bishops will be chosen.

General Assembly.

The general assembly of the Southern Presbyterian church convened in Mobile, Ala., Thursday, May 19, and remain in session ten days. Delegates are expected from all the Southern states. Among the prominent ministers who will be in attendance are Dr. Neel, of Kansas City; Drs. Hemphill and Lyons, of Louisville, and Dr. O. R. English, of Richmond, Va. The Rev. J. E. Fogartie, stated supply of the Ninth Street Presbyterian church, will attend. The assembly will be opened Thursday morning at 11 o'clock with a sermon by the retiring moderator, Dr. A. C. Hopkins, of West Virginia. A new moderator will then be elected and the assembly will proceed to business.

Among the important questions to be considered is the proposed union of the Northern and Southern Presbyterian churches. This matter is expected to evoke much discussion. Another proposition to be considered is the union of the Dutch Reformed church and the Southern Presbyterian church.

The night sessions will be taken up largely by popular meetings in the interest of the various church causes, with short addresses by members of the assembly.

The Illinois Central will sell round trip tickets to Frankfort, Ky., on May 28th and 29th, limited to May 26th, at one fare plus 25 cents, ($7.08), account state meeting G. A. R. E. M. Sherwood, Agent.

Deputy Sheriff Lucian Lindsey arrested at Guthrie Tuesday Arthur Fagg and brought him to this city and put him in jail, charged with robbery, says the Elkton Progress. The victim of this charge is said to be John Valentine, a man who resides near Trenton, who claims the loss of several hundred dollars. It is alleged that Fagg assaulted and robbed Valentine Monday night on Trading alley here, when these two and others were taking in the town. W. M. Hughes' cash register at the saloon was touched the same night for about $5.

HOUSEHOLD CARES

Tax the Women of Hopkinsville the Same as Elsewhere.

Hard to attend to household duties with a constantly aching back. A woman should not have a bad back, and she wouldn't if the kidneys were well. Doan's Kidney pills make well kidneys.

Here is a Hopkinsville woman who endorses this claim: Mrs. W. H. Robb, wife of W. H. Robb, machinist employed at Forbes & Co's Wagon Works, and residing at 1029 High St., says: "I hardly knew for many months what it was to be free from aching back and the irregular action of the kidneys caused at the same time other symptoms which were distressing often-times exasperating. I read about Doan's Kidney Pills and the symptoms which it was claimed it would cure seemed so much like mine that I had my husband get a box for me at Thomas & Fraher's drug store. I found that they gave me almost immediate relief, and continued taking them for some time. They did me more good than all the kidney medicine I had ever taken put together, and the results of the treatment justify me in subscribing my name to a hearty endorsement of the Pills." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Worlds Fair Excursion Rates Over the I. C.

On account of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, the Illinois Central Railroad Company will sell round trip tickets to St. Louis as follows: From April 25th to November 15th, limited to Dec. 15, $12.25. From April 25th, to Nov. 30th, limited to 60 days from date of sale, but not later than Dec. 15th, $10.20. From April 25th, to Nov. 30th, limited to 10 days from date of sale, $9.65. All tickets will be limited to continuous passage in both directions. E. M. Sherwood, Agent.

The Illinois Central will sell round trip tickets to Frankfort, Ky., May 16, 17, and 18, at one fare plus 25 cents, ($7.08), account Grand Commandery, Knight Templars Conclave. Return limit May 21.

Arrangements Are Completed For Confederate Reunion at Nashville.

A largely attended meeting of Ned Meriwether camp, U. C. V. was held here Saturday. A notice of the business transacted will appear in the next issue of the New Era. The veterans are manifesting much interest in the June reunion.

All arrangements for the reunion have been completed and the Nashville Confederate organizations in conjunction with the business associations have provided a splendid program and made ample provision for the care and entertainment of all visitors.

The only variation from former rules is the giving of preference to the old soldiers. The sponsors and maids of honor are to be entertained by the commanders of the departments, divisions or brigades which they represent. Special provision has been made for many of them in the best homes. The orator of the reunion will be the Rev. S. McKim, of Washington, and Senator John W. Daniel, of Virginia, has been selected to deliver the oration at the laying of the corner stone of the monument to private Confederate soldiers.

Memorial services will be held on the second day in honor of the late Commander-in-Chief John B. Gordon, and Judge Thos. G. Jones, ex-governor of Alabama, will deliver the eulogy and present the resolutions.

"Castles In The Air."

It has long been conceded that Gov. Bob Taylor has no peer as a versatile entertainer. Our country is prolific of great orators, word painters, humorists and story tellers, who spring up almost with every new day, but seldom do the centuries unveil a man who combines the talents of all these. Such a man is Bob Taylor, and the new lecture which he presents for the coming season gives the widest range to his varied talents. He has spent much time in its preparation, and it is new from first castle which he builds with silver tongue, through all of its delicate humor and side-splitting anecdotes, to its peroration of matchless beauty. The lecture will be heard May 30 at Holland's opera house.

WHY WE SELL CHEAPER

THE profits of any business are based on how the goods are bought and on the amount of expense in conducting same. We have bought our goods, consisting of Clothing, Dry Goods, Shoes, Ladies and Gents Furnishing Goods, Trunks, Valises, etc., at a bankrupt sale, and we have bought the above goods at 50c on the dollar. Now we are giving the benefit to our customers. This is another reason—it happens here every day. Good reason for it. No high rent to pay; expenses are always kept down, and we are perfectly satisfied the way they come.

For these reasons we can sell cheaper. All we ask is for you to call at our store before you buy and compare our prices with those of older established houses.

LANGLEY BELL DEAD

PASSED AWAY AT HOME
MONDAY NIGHT.

He Had Been In Declining
Health For a Number of Months.

From Tuesday's Daily.

Mr. Langley Bell, an aged and well known citizen, died last night at his residence on the corner of Tenth and Liberty streets of ills incident to old age. He had been in failing health for many months. The deceased was about eighty-five years of age and had been a resident of Hopkinsville since he was a young man.

For a number of years he was in the furniture and undertaking business and later was town marshal of Hopkinsville, the duties of which position he discharged exceptionally well and without fear or favor, during a troublous time in the city's history. After he retired from office he engaged in the liquor business in which he continued until forced to retire by reason of age and infirmities. He was a man of generous impulses and charitable and was noted for his scrupulous honesty in business matters. Mr. Bell was a charter member of the Odd Fellows lodge. One son, Mr. Walter Bell, of Knoxville, Tenn., survives him. He will arrive in the city tomorrow morning. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

MR. HAYDEN DEAD.

GOOD CITIZEN ANSWERS
DREAD SUMMONS.

Native of Ireland.—Mrs. Tandy's Funeral.—Death Near Gracey.

(From Monday's Daily.)

Mr. John Hayden, a worthy and substantial citizen, died Sunday at the residence of his son-in-law, Mr. W. R. Bowles, on Walnut street, after an illness of about three weeks of a complication of diseases. He was born in 1831 in Tipperary, Ireland, and came to New York when he was fourteen years of age. He returned to his home in the old country after a short residence in New York, but in a few years came back to America and located in Cincinnati. He came to Hopkinsville in 1861 with the late Robert Mills, contractor, to paint the old asylum building, and, when the work was completed, decided to make Hopkinsville his home. He was held in high esteem by all who knew him and his death causes much sorrow. His family consists of his wife, who was formerly Miss Far-rie Catlett, Mr. Charles Hayden, Mr. Ernest Hayden and Mrs. W. R. Bowles. Funeral services were held this afternoon and the remains interred in Hopewell cemetery.

Funeral service over the remains of the late Mrs. David Tandy took place this morning at the late residence and was attended by a large number of sorrowing relatives and friends. There were many beautiful floral designs. The service was conducted by the Rev. H. D. Smith pastor of the Christian church, of which Mrs. Tandy was a member. The remains were interred in Hopewell cemetery.

Mr. Riley Wood, aged twenty-four years, died yesterday at the home of his father, Mr. J. W. Wood, near Gracey. Measles, followed by pneumonia, was the cause of the young man's death. He was a popular young man and was unmarried. Interment took place in the Wood burying ground near Sinking Fork. Several other members of the family are seriously ill of the same disease.

Whisky Medicines.

The temperance press is emphasizing the danger to the home in the use of "medicines" which are loaded with whisky or alcohol. In this respect, as well as in the remarkable character of their cures, Dr. Pierce's medicines differ from other preparations. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and "Favorite Prescription" contain no alcohol, whisky or other intoxicant, and are equally free from opium, cocaine and other narcotics. Every family should have a copy of the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, sent absolutely free, on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 21 stamps for cloth binding. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, New York.

Congressman Francis Shober, of New York, and Judge James P. Tarkin, of Covington, spoke Saturday night at the courthouse in the interest of William Randolph Hearst's candidacy for the Democratic nomination for president. They were introduced by Mr. John C. Duffy. The audience was very small.

The Illinois Republicans are expected to spend another day in fruitless balloting for governor. It is said that a "dark horse" has no chance to win.

Brings Suit.

J. R. Berry has filed suit against J. H. Kistner for $200 damages and $30 for services he claims to have rendered. It is alleged in the petition that the parties to the suit entered into a contract whereby Kistner was to furnish the land, teams, etc., for cultivation this year while Berry was to furnish the labor, the proceeds to be equally divided. The plaintiff claims that he did considerable work on the place preparing for the crop and that then Kistner refused to allow him to have the land they had agreed upon but offered half interest and the firm is now him land too poor to raise a crop. known as Fagan & Cansler. # Thacher's LIVER & BLOOD SYRUP CURES

A Remedy That No One Is Afraid To Take.

Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup has been used in thousands of homes for fifty-two years with perfect confidence and the most remarkable results.

The great success of this remedy is due to the fact that its formula (which consists of Buchu, Hydrangea, Mandrake, Yellow Dock, Dandelion, Sarsaparilla, Gentian, Senna and Iodide of Potassium) has been freely published.

Doctors and Druggists everywhere do not hesitate to recommend a preparation which they know contains the best-known remedies for correcting all irregularities of the Liver, Kidneys or Blood, and the diseases caused by the failure of these functions to perform their proper work.

Thousands of sick ones to whom life has been a burden have written grateful letters that others might profit by their experience.

BLOOMING GROVE, TEX., Nov. 13, 1902. I was suffering terribly with indigestion and kidney trouble and sent to my druggist for something to relieve me.

As he sent me a package of Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup I concluded to try it, and now I am deeply grateful to my druggist as well as to you. I had been a sufferer from these things and a general run-down condition for ten years, and had only received temporary relief from other medicines. But after using not quite two packages of your Liver and Blood Syrup I feel as stout and hearty as I ever did in my life, and I am satisfied that I am entirely cured. I feel no symptoms whatever of kidney trouble, and my digestion is as good as any living man's. I can now eat whatever I choose.

I never had any remedy give me such quick and permanent relief, and I can not put a correct estimate on the value your medicine has been to me. I would not take any amount of money for it. Very gratefully yours, J. C. BROWN.

If you need a medicine write to-day for a free sample bottle and "Dr. Thacher's Health Book."

Give symptoms for advice. We simply ask you to try it at our expense. We know what it will do.

For sale by all Druggists—two sizes—50 cents and $1.00.

RUNAWAY ACCIDENT

COLLEGE CADETS ARE THROWN FROM BUGGY.

Vehicle Demolished—Horse
Badly Injured and Had To Be Killed.

(From Friday's Daily.)

Yesterday while driving down East Seventh street, Messrs. Ewell Majors and Edward Williams, two pupils of South Kentucky College, were badly bruised by the horse running away and throwing them out. The runaway was caused by the breaking of some part of the harness which allowed the buggy to run down on the horse. The buggy was hurled against a tree at Seventh and Clay streets, completely demolishing the vehicle, throwing the boys some distance and breaking one of the horse's legs. The buggy was a mass of splintered timbers and was gathered together and hauled off in a wagon like so much rubbish. The horse, a valuable animal, had to be killed. The boys were badly bruised and shaken up, but their injuries are not serious. Williams is from Henderson. Majors is a son of Mr. E. W. Majors, of South Christian.

I procured a bottle and before using the entire contents we were entirely cured. It is a wonderful remedy and should be found in every household. H. C. Bailey, Editor. This remedy is for sale by L. # ALL FOR PARKER.

(Special to New Era)

INDIANAPOLIS, May 13.—At the Democratic state convention yesterday the delegation to the national convention was instructed for Alton B. Parker for the presidential nomination and the unit rule was prescribed to govern them. In spite of the noisy claims of strength made by the Hearst managers, the New York newspaper man was run over and completely flattened out, not a single issue contended for by him having been successful.

Whooping Cough.

"In the spring of 1901 my children had whooping cough," says Mrs. D. W. Capps, of Capps, Ala. "I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with the most satisfactory results. I think this is the most satisfactory remedy I have ever seen for whooping cough." This remedy keeps the cough loose, lessens the severity and frequency of the coughing spells and counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. For sale by L. L. Elgin.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, dis- courage and lessens upon the body, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling how to get it, and thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

A Sensational Encounter
Occurs on a Sleeping Car.

(Special to New Era.)

TEXARKANA, Tex., May 3.—There was a sensational shooting affray on the eastbound Texas and Pacific train coming into Texarkana between Revs. J. B. Cranfill and S. L. Hayden. Cranfill fired two shots from a magazine pistol at Rev. Hayden while the latter was struggling for the possession of the weapon. Neither shot took effect.

The encounter occurred in the lavatory of the sleeper, on which both men were en route to the Southern Baptist convention at Nashville, Tenn. The Rev. Cranfill was arrested on his arrival here and arraigned before Justice Henry on a charge of assault to murder. He waived examination and was released on $1,000 bond.

The encounter, it is alleged, grew out of past differences, legal and personal, between the two men. Hayden was accompanied by his wife and daughter and Cranfill by a party of friends.

HOW TWO BEAUTIFUL WOMEN ESCAPED SPRING CATARRH BY USE OF PE-RU-NA.

Nothing Robs One of Strength Like Spring
Catarrh---Spring Fever is Spring Catarrh.

Mrs. Leone Dolehan.

Mrs. Leone Dolehan, in a letter from the Commercial Hotel, Minneapolis, Minn., writes:
Gentlemen: "For two months my physician experimented with me trying to cure a hard cold which settled in my stomach, causing inflammation and catarrh. I then made up my mind flatter myself as to the value of Peruna in such cases, I thought I would try it.
"It was six weeks before I could eat a meal without unpleasant effects, but I have now been well for six months, and I give all the credit to Peruna."—Mrs. Leone Dolehan.

Miss Helen Whitman.

Miss Helen Whitman, 808 1/2 Grand Ave., Milwaukee, Wis., writes:
"There is nothing like Peruna for that tired feeling, which gives you no ambition for work or play. After a prolonged illness, about a year ago I felt unable to regain my health, but four bottles of Peruna made a wonderful change and restored me to perfect health. As long as you keep your blood in a good condition you are all right, and Peruna seems to fill the veins with pure, healthful blood. I thoroughly endorse it."—Miss Helen Whitman.

How to Get Strong Nerves.
First, repair the injury already done to your nerves. The way to do this is to do exactly as did Mr. Hal, F. Denton, Chief Department Publicity and Promotion of National Export Exposition.
He writes: "Toward the latter part of August I found myself in a very much run-down condition. My family physician said I had nervous prostration and recommended a sea voyage. I gradually grew worse. A kind friend whom I had known in Ohio recommended Peruna. Though skeptical, I finally yielded to his advice. After using one bottle I was much improved and with the fifth bottle came complete recovery. I am in perfect health today and owe everything to Peruna."—Hal, F. Denton.

A Spring Tonic.
Almost everybody needs a tonic in the spring. Something to brace the nerves, invigorate the brain, and cleanse the blood. That Peruna will do this is beyond all question. Everyone who has tried it has had the same experience as Mrs. D. W. Timberlake, of Lynchburg, Va., who, in a recent letter, made use of the following words: "I always take a dose of Peruna after business hours, as it is a great thing for the nerves. There is no better spring tonic, and I have used about all of them."—Mrs. D. W. Timberlake.

Catarrh in Spring.
The spring is the best time to treat catarrh. Nature renews herself every spring. The system is rejuvenated by spring weather. This renews the medicines more effective. A short course of Peruna, assisted by the balmy air of spring, will cure old, stubborn cases of catarrh that have resisted treatment for years. Everybody should have a copy of Dr. Hartman's latest book on catarrh. Address The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, Ohio.

COLLECTING DATA

IS GEN. JOHNSON FOR HIS BOOK.

Sketch of Confederate Brigadier Who Operated in This Region.

Pronounced dead by seven Confederate surgeons, Brig. Gen. Adam R. Johnson, whose home is in Burket, Tex., and who is now in Louisville, lived to hear his obituary read from the newspapers, and while he has completed his three score and ten years, he is still a vigorous old man, though totally blind, says the Courier-Journal. His blindness resulted from the wound which the surgeons of the army pronounced mortal. He was wounded by his own men between Hopkinsville and Princeton, at Grubb's crossroads. The ball entered his right eye and passed out of the left temple, destroying the optic nerves and producing blindness, from which there was no relief.
Gen. Johnson is writing a book which will be the history of the Kentucky Partisan Rangers and an autobiography by himself. It contains accounts of a number of thrilling episodes in which Gen. Johnson took part with Gens. Morgan and Forrest. He is an old comrade of Gen. Basil Duke, and the two veterans have spent a number of pleasant hours together since Gen. Johnson came to Kentucky on his present visit. He is staying at 308 East Broadway, and is accompanied by his wife.

For seven years of his early life, Gen. Johnson was on the western frontier, and he engaged in many of the hand to hand fights with the Indians. When the civil war broke out he was in Texas surveying a tract of land. He hastened to Kentucky and enlisted in Forrest's command at Hopkinsville. He first served as a private, following Forrest until the evacuation of Corinth, Miss.

After that Gen. Johnson came to Kentucky, organized, mounted, armed and equipped 2,000 men. The detachment was raised in Kentucky between Owensboro and Henderson and throughout Southwestern Kentucky on Green river. He called his troops the Partisan Rangers, and they were the first to be commissioned as such in the Confederate service. He joined Morgan on the Christmas raid of 1863, and after his men became identified with Morgan's cavalry he left and again began to organize troops.

It was on this second expedition that Gen. Johnson secured his rank and made his name. With only a handful of men he captured Henderson, Ky., and other towns, and he was the first man to capture a town north of the Mason and Dixon line. While raising his force after leaving Morgan Gen. Johnson took twenty-seven men and captured Newburg, Ind. He held the populace in subjection with mock artillery made of stovepipes, and the exploit won him the name of "Stovepipe" Johnson. Returning to Kentucky he enlisted a brigade of men, and during his operations about Hopkinsville he captured a detachment of federal troops. While guarding them with his men another detachment of his brigade approached in the early dawn, and mistaking the group of federals for Gen. Johnson in the right eye and produced total blindness. While he was active in the border warfare between the North and South, he has lived for fifty years in Texas, and will return there after his book is published.

George B. Cortelyou, secretary of the department of commerce and labor, is mentioned for the chairmanship of the national Republican committee. It is stated that Mr. Cortelyou, if elected, will resign his cabinet position and devote his entire time to the campaign.

NEVER DIVORCED

NEAL IS CHARGED WITH BIGAMY.

First Wife Will Be Produced at His Forthcoming Trial.

While William E. Neal, the slayer of James K. Shrader, former assistant commonwealth's attorney, has applied for a change of venue in his case, which comes up for trial within the next few days, it was learned last night that even though his request is granted there are circumstances surrounding the murder of Mr. Shrader which, when brought out, will damage him materially.

In speaking of the case last night, Joseph Huffaker, commonwealth's attorney, said that Neal had placed himself in a very bad plight by being both a murderer and a bigamist. The state, according to Mr. Huffaker's statement, will be able to prove that Neal at the present time has two wives living.

"Neal has another wife besides the one who caused the jealousy, which ended in the murder of Shrader," said Mr. Huffaker. "In fact the woman who was known here as Mrs. Neal was not his legal wife. Neal married her, it is true, but he had not at that time been divorced from his first wife, who is still living." From what Mr. Huffaker said it is likely that Mrs. Neal No. 1 will be on hand to testify against her husband when the trial comes up, although the whereabouts of the second Mrs. Neal is at present unknown. It is known that the defense rely greatly on the fact that James K. Shrader alienated the affections of Neal's wife.

VETERANS MEETING

DELEGATES TO THE RE-UNION APPOINTED.

Decoration Day Arrangements.—New Members.—Resolutions Adopted.

Ned Meriwether Camp, No. 241, United Confederate Veterans, met Saturday at the office of Adjutant Hunter Wood and transacted business of importance. There was a good attendance. The camp is in a flourishing condition and has seventy-two members.

Officers were re-elected. Five veterans were elected to membership as follows: Maj. J. O. Ferrell, P. P. Huffman, G. W. Williams, John E. Saunders and W. C. Saunders.

Delegates and attendants to the June reunion in Nashville were elected as follows: Delegates—W. P. Winfree, Dr. J. P. Paine, R. C. Moorfield and C. F. Jarrett; Alternates—R. W. Vaughn, D. M. Whitaker and J. C. Adecock.

The following standing committee to look after members who are sick or in distress was appointed: Dr. J. M. Dennis, D. W. Whitaker and E. W. Walker.

A committee was appointed to cooperate with the Daughters of the Confederacy in preparation for Decoration Day, June 8. It is proposed to meet at Moayan's Hall at 10 a. m. and a basket dinner will be served there. In the afternoon there will be appropriate exercises at Hopewell Cemetery, and additional crosses of honor will be conferred. The committee on arrangements is C. F. Jarrett, M. H. Nelson and E. W. Walker.

The proposition of the Tennessee Central in reference to reunion rates was accepted. The road makes the round trip ticket $1.44. The members of the camp will leave Hopkinsville at 6 o'clock on the morning of June 14, the opening day of the reunion at Nashville.

The following reports were unanimously adopted:
To the Ned Meriwether Camp, No. 241, United Confederate Veterans: The undersigned committee appointed at a meeting of the camp held February 18th, 1904, to draft suitable resolutions expressive of our sorrow at the death of Comrade E. P. Russell, make the following report:

Whereas, since our last meeting, it has pleased an all wise providence to take from us our comrade, E. P. Russell, and his surviving comrades desire to show proper respect to his memory and sorrow for his death,
RESOLVED:
1st. That in the death of Comrade Russell the community in which he lived has lost a valuable citizen, who by his integrity, upright and noble character made him respected and loved by all.

2d. We, his surviving comrades of the Lost Cause, whose ranks are being rapidly thinned by the shafts of death, join the loved ones of our departed comrade in sorrow over their separation from him, and offer this tribute of respect and esteem to his memory, who in his life so well illustrated the courage and manhood that induced him in the spring-time of his life to go out to battle for the cause he held to be sacred.

3rd. That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this camp, published in the local papers and a copy furnished to the family of our deceased comrade.

J. M. Dennis, W. P. Winfree, Hunter Wood, Com.

To the Ned Meriwether Camp, No. 241, United Confederate Veterans: The undersigned who were appointed a committee at a meeting of this camp held on May 8, 1904, to draft suitable resolutions expressive of their sorrow at the death of our comrade, William G. Wheeler, make the following report:

Whereas death has suddenly claimed one of our beloved comrades,

William G. Wheeler, and we, his sorrowing comrades, desire to show respect and love for his memory,
RESOLVED:

1st. That in the death of Comrade William G. Wheeler the community in which he had resided all his useful life has lost one of its most enterprising and valuable citizens, who by his business integrity, pleasing address and many attractive qualities of head and heart has made him esteemed and remembered with affectionate regard by us all.

2d. That we, his comrades, who are still behind, desire to express our deep sorrow at his death and offer our tribute of respect and love to the memory of one whose tender heart and charitable disposition was ever ready to respond to all calls of the unfortunate and needy.

3d. That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the camp, and published in the city papers, and a copy furnished to the family of our dead comrade.

J. M. Dennis, W. P. Winfree, Hunter Wood, Com.

MISS CLARA BARTON

RESIGNS PRESIDENCY OF RED CROSS.

Succeeded By Mrs. John A. Logan Who Is the Vice President.

(Special to New Era.)

WASHINGTON, May 17.—Miss Clara Barton has resigned the presidency of the American Red Cross and was succeeded by Mrs. John A. Logan, who has heretofore occupied the office of vice president of the association.

The ceremony took place at Mrs. Logan's residence, and was participated in by Miss Barton, Mrs. Logan and members of the executive committee of the Red Cross. Miss Barton's letter of resignation was a partial review of the work at the organization.

With the retirement of Miss Barton, Mrs. Logan, as vice president, succeeds to the duties of the chief position.

Miss Barton left with Mrs. Logan a number of suggestions bearing upon the conduct of the society, and Mrs. Logan suggested that a meeting be called for September 6 next for the consideration of these memoranda. In speaking of the necessity of this meeting she put it upon the ground of "the present unpleasant and unsatisfactory condition of affairs." She suggested that at the proposed meeting no proxies be received. She also expressed the opinion that in the interim a proper custodian should be appointed to take charge of the assets of the organization.

The Liberty bell will be taken to St. Louis. This was decided upon on the 5th, when both branches of the city council of Philadelphia passed a resolution appointing a special joint committee of twenty-four to escort the revolutionary relic and appropriating $15,000 to defray the expenses.

MORRIS REMOVED

CHARGE IN TAYLOR CASE SUSTAINED.

Clem Davis Is Elected to Fill the Vacancy on Police Force.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

The council in executive session last night removed Lee A. Morris from the position of policeman. The case against him, charging him with assaulting Civil Engineer W. H. Taylor, was heard in open council. Mr. Taylor, Dr. Grady, of Trenton, Miss Agnes Pursely and M. E. Boyd appeared against the officer. Mr. Morris gave testimony in his own behalf and Thomas Maddox, of Nortonville, was a witness for him. Attorney John Feland represented Mr. Taylor and Judge Chas. H. Bush appeared for the policeman. Both lawyers ably argued the case.

The council then went into executive session and took the action mentioned. Clem Davis was elected to fill the vacancy. The vote stood 4 for Davis and 2 for I. P. Duke, Councilman L. H. Davis not voting.

TOUR IN AUTOMOBILE

Telephone Officials Going Over State Inspecting Lines.

James E. Caldwell, president of the East Tennessee Telephone company, and Assistant General Manager Leland Hume, are inspecting the lines of the company in Kentucky, and are making the trip in an automobile. They have already visited several cities and expect to visit all of the East Tennessee lines in the state before they stop. Their date of arrival here is not known at present. The lines are all in good condition so far as already inspected and it is announced that the company will this year build a line to every city of any consequence in the state not already touched.

SUPPOSED DEAD MAN

Came Near Being Buried Alive, But Is Likely to Get Well.

John Sloane, who lives in the rural districts of Todd county, apparently died and was prepared for burial. The grave was dug and the neighbors had assembled for the funeral. As Sloane was being placed in his coffin signs of life were observed and he was brought back to consciousness. It is now believed that he will recover.

WORK COMPLETED

Southern Baptist Convention Has Adjourned.

The forty-ninth Southern Baptist convention, which has been in session at Nashville since Friday last, completed its work and adjourned to next year in Kansas City.

The Hopkinsville delegates have returned home, and at the prayer meeting tonight, at 7:30 o'clock, they will be given an opportunity to tell of their impressions of the convention.

It was announced that almost $250,000 had been raised during the year for foreign missions, and that now workers are needed more than money.

At the meeting of the California Democratic state convention at Santa Cruz, Frank R. Gould, an anti-Hearst man, was elected for temporary chairman. This is regarded as a defeat for Hearst in his effort to secure an instructed delegation from California.

Fugitive W. S. Taylor, of Kentucky, has withdrawn his acceptance of an invitation to deliver the Memorial day address at Kokomo, Ind., because of some objection to him.

COST OF LIVING HIGHEST EVER RECORDED.

Growth of Expenses Is Fruit of the Republican Policies.

The average price of all commodities in the United States in 1908 was the highest in the last thirteen years. This is shown in a bulletin of the department of commerce and labor, in which Labor Commissioner Carroll D. Wright has undertaken to give some knowledge of the increased cost of living. His report includes 260 series of quotations, covering farm products, food, cloth and clothing, fuel and lighting, metals and implements, lumber and building materials, drugs and chemicals, house furnishing goods and miscellaneous commodities.

In making his report the statistician uses the method pursued by all leading authorities of the world, and in comparing the prices for 1908 with former years he reduces the price of the preceding thirteen years to an average price for that period. He places this average price always at 100. The decrease or increase in the cost for 1908 is expressed in percentage as compared with the 100 standard.

The first table shows that the average relative prices of all commodities were higher in 1908 than at any time since and including 1890. Farm products reached the lowest average in 1896 and the highest in 1902. Cloth and clothing were lowest in 1897 and highest in 1890. Fuel and lighting were lowest in 1894 and highest in 1903. Metals and implements were lowest in 1898 and highest in 1900. Lumber and building materials were lowest in 1897 and highest in 1893.

JOHN C. LATHAM

Elected Honorary Member of Ned Meriwether Camp U. C. V.

At the meeting of Ned Meriwether Camp, No. 241, U. C. V., Saturday, Mr. John C. Latham was unanimously elected an honorary member in recognition of his splendid tribute to the South in the erection of the monument in Hopewell cemetery in memory of the unknown Confederate dead, and in attestation of the love and esteem which all the veterans of the camp feel for him. Mr. Latham was himself a Confederate soldier, having entered the army as a private and continuing in the service until the final surrender.

USE BLOODHOUNDS

IN AN EFFORT TO CATCH A THIEF.

(From Wednesday's Daily)
Soon after supper Tuesday night a unknown thief stole seven pair of shoes from the store of Bassett & Co. The thief broke the glass in a rear window but could not get inside on account of the bars. He procured a long stick and fastening a hook in the end managed to reach and secure the shoes in this manner. On entering the store shortly after eight o'clock, Mr. Bassett heard the noise made by the thief, but did not think anything of it at the time and did not discover the loss until after ten o'clock. Bloodhounds were put on the trail and followed it to Seventh street where it was lost.

The determination of the Japanese to isolate Port Arthur absolutely, as a preliminary to the attack, is shown by St. Petersburg despatches, which declare that fifty miles of the railroad north of Kin Chou has been destroyed, the Russian railroad guard retreating before the advance of the Japanese forces.

WARE WANTS OUT

HAS HAD ENOUGH OF WASHINGTON LIFE.

Cause Is Not Known, But He Has Clashed With His Superior.

(Special to New Era)
WASHINGTON, May 17.—Eugene F. Ware, commissioner of pensions, has handed his resignation to President Roosevelt, to take effect at the pleasure of the latter. The resignation has been in the hands of the president for some time, but he has urged the poet lawyer to remain at his post for a while longer, as there is no desire to select a new commissioner during the national campaign, and it is probable Mr. Ware will remain at the head of the pension office until after election. The commissioner declines to disclose his reasons for wishing to return to Kansas, but it has been evident for some time that his official birth has not been entirely to his liking. He has clashed several times with his superior, Secretary Hitchcock, who has overruled several opinions of the commissioner, and has ordered the reversal of some of his official acts.

Two Initiated.

Messrs. David Smith and Will Terry were initiated last night into the mysteries of the Elks lodge.

Sue Railroad.

Messrs. S. M. and Kee R. McKee have brought suit in the name of McKee & Company against the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company for $400 damages. They state that on March 1, 1904, a wagon drawn by a pair of mules was struck at the Clarksville crossing by one of the defendant's trains, resulting in the death of one mule, the serious wounding of the other and much damage to the wagon and harness. They claim that they were damaged in the sum prayed for, and that the accident was due to the negligence and carelessness of the employees on the defendant's train.

ILLNESS WAS BRIEF

DEATH OF MR. WILLIAM H. FAXON.

Funeral Services Thursday at Christian Church.—Interment in Hopewell.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)
Mr. William H. Faxon died at an early hour this morning at his residence on East Seventh street after a brief illness of erysipelas. He was an honorable, upright and popular gentleman and his death causes general sorrow.

Mrs. Faxon, the wife of the deceased, had been very ill of erysipelas and he had been nursing her with tender devotion. Last Friday night he lay down on a couch to take a nap and the point of a pair of scissors in his pocket made a slight abrasion on his side. Erysipelas quickly developed and, despite the most careful attention and the best medical skill, the disease caused his death about five o'clock this morning.

Mr. Faxon was a native Kentuckian and was fifty-three years of age. He was born in Todd county and came to Hopkinsville to reside when a young man. He was a nephew of Mr. John W. Faxon, formerly of this city, but now of Chattanooga, Tenn. He had charge of the books of the firm of Wheeler & Mills, tobacco warehousemen, and after the death of Mr. Mills became a member of the firm. He remained in the tobacco business until a few years ago. Later he had been connected with the Forbes Manufacturing company. Since May 1896 he had been a member of the board of public school trustees and took the keenest interest in advancing the standard of the schools.

He was married to Miss Kate Atkinson, and his wife and three children, Mrs. Gabe Payne, Miss Katherine Faxon and Lawson Faxon, survive him. He was devoted to his family, kind, affectionate and generous. His life was temperate, active and worthy of emulation, and he enjoyed the respect and confidence of all who knew him, and there is none who will not testify to his honesty, integrity and high moral character.

Funeral services will take place tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock from the Christian church, of which the deceased was a consistent member, conducted by the Rev. E. D. Smith, the pastor. The interment will be in Hopewell cemetery.

In New Store.

Ray & Fowler are moving from their former quarters in Hotel Latham building to the store room on Main and Ninth streets formerly occupied by the First National Bank. The interior of their new store has been remodeled, the floor tiled, ceiling mated and other improvements made and the store now presents as handsome an appearance as any in the city.

Miss Lackey Won.

From Wednesday's Daily.
Miss Ruby Lackey, daughter of Dr. G. W. Lackey, of Pembroke, won the oratorical contest in that city last night, there being quite a number of contestants and much interest manifested. The prize was a handsome gold medal. Miss Lackey gave a reading "entitled 'Ole Logan's Courtship.'" Mrs. W. T. Fowler and Mr. Clifton Long, of this city, were two of the judges of the contest.

The Louisville and Nashville, the Illinois Central and the Louisville, Henderson and St. Louis railroads have framed an agreement to protect the export tobacco rate from the lower Ohio river territory. The North Atlantic port lines claim that the agreement is hurtful to their interests, and may take retaliatory measures.

Rumors of a big land battle at Liao Yang have reached New Chwang, where the booming of big guns could be heard faintly on Monday.

STATE CONVENTION

OF UNIVERSALISTS HERE THIS WEEK

Business Meetings Today and Saturday and Sermons at Night.

From Wednesday's Daily.
The state convention of the Universalist church will meet at the Universalist church in this city next Friday at 9:30 a. m. and continues in session three days.

The following program has been arranged for the meeting. Friday 9:30 a. m.:

Organization, president's address, appointment of committees, sermon. 2 p. m. Report of committees, address of Prof. D. L. Teague, of St. Charles; Effect of Universalist doctrine on character, general discussion.

8 p. m.—Sermon:

Saturday 9:30 a. m.—Song, prayer and praise service. Election of officers

Sermon. 2 p. m.—Business, sermon. Sunday: 9:30 Sunday school; 11 a. m., sermon; 8 p. m., sermon.

Rev. Mrs. A. J. Irwin preaches to-night, and every night this week.

Dogwood Doings.

Dogwood, May 18.—Rev. T. D. Moore preached here last Sunday.

Mr. Monroe Boyd has moved his sawmill to Mr. W. R. Oates farm where he will remain for some time, as he has quite a good deal of timber to saw.

Mrs. Mollie McChord is quite sick at present.

Mr. Chas. Lindsey is all smiles. He is the happy father of a fine girl.

The people of this community regret very much to learn of the death of Miss Effie Wood. She was well known, having taught school here fourteen months, and was very much admired by all who knew her.

Miss Maud Underwood has been confined to her room for some time on account of a dislocation of her knee joint.

Mr. Walter Yancey and family of Bluff Springs, visited Mr. J. W. Yancey's family last Sunday.

Tobacco plants are very scarce in this section, and it is thought that a very small crop will be planted.

The social at Mr. J. W. Underwood's Saturday night was very much enjoyed by all present.

A crowd of young people contemplated going to Pilot Rock Sunday.

DOUBT REMAINS

AS TO ENGLISH TAX ON STRIPS.

Since our last information has been received by cable from England by some parties that the increased duty had been fixed at six cents on all strips not taken out of bond and to arrive, while other cables assert that the matter has not been definitely settled, so that we presume the trade will be in suspense yet for another two weeks, when it is stated the bill will again come up before Parliament for discussion, says the Western Tobacco Journal. We understand that much depends upon what will be done with the question of allowing drawback on stems and scraps, which manufacturers do not wish to use, but surrender to the government to be destroyed. Until this is settled no one can tell to what extent the differential duty of six cents will affect the value of leaf as compared with strips, either in bond or to be exported, although, judging from the anxiety of some stemmers to buy and put up in leaf, it appears to indicate that they feel satisfied. It will be safer to prepare leaf than strips.

JAPANESE ARE PRESSING ON AND THE RUSSIANS ARE RETREATING.

Czar's Troops Have Been Driven Out of Kai Chou.—Late News From the Scene of War.

CHEE FO, May 18.—The Japanese are now steadily and rapidly advancing on New Chwang, and the Russian guard there is preparing to evacuate before the arrival of the Mikado's troops.

The Russians were driven out of Kai Chou Monday.

TOKIO, May 18.—Two Japanese divisions are now near Mukden for the purpose of cutting off Kuropatkin's line of retreat north.

Dispatches from the scene of war in the Far East indicate that the Japanese are practically in control of all the southern end of the Liao Tung peninsula. Officials at St. Petersburg virtually admit that Dainy has been destroyed and New Chwang evacuated by the Russians, who will concentrate their forces for the defense of Port Arthur. Lieut. Gen. Count Keller will take command of the Second Siberian army division in place of Gen. Zassalitch removed.

Passing of a Nation.

So the Hawaiians are to follow the American Indians into oblivion, says the Cincinnati Post.

The figures prove it, and the civilization of the white man seems only to hasten the end.

In 1853 there were some 70,000 pure-blood Hawaiians, and at that time the number began to dwindle until, according to the census figures of 1900, the number of pure-blood and mixed blood Hawaiians had dropped to 37,385.

Lucien C. Warner, an authority, says, in the Outlook, that the health of the natives is far from satisfactory. The race seems to be dying out. There are few large families, and many of the children die in infancy. Vitality has been lowered and tuberculosis is on the increase.

On the other hand, the number of part Hawaiians is increasing, and the mixed bloods are a sturdy race. There are Caucasian Hawaiians and Chinese Hawaiians, and they rear large families and are but little troubled by disease. The increase of the mixed bloods is best shown by the school statistics. In 1902 there were 4903 full-blooded Hawai children to a population of 29,757, and 2,399 part Hawaiian children to a population of 7,948.

The proportion of children is twice as great among the part Hawaiian as among those of pure blood.

Except on the grounds of sentiment there is nothing to deplore in the situation. Races die because

BLOOD CELLS.

IN HEALTH. IN DISEASE.

Man is a millionaire many times over in the possession of blood cells. Woman is not quite so rich, for scientists have proved that the normal number of red blood cells in adult men is five million; in women four and a half million, to the square millimeter. The normal cell is not absolutely round in health, but, in disease, becomes extremely irregular in shape. Every one can be in perfect health and possess the millions of rich red blood corpuscles if they only know how to go about it. Dr. R. V. Pierce, consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y., advises every man and woman to prepare for a long life by observing nature's laws. In the first place, if your digestion is faulty, and the food you eat is not taken up by the blood and assimilated properly, you need a tonic and digestive corrector, something that will increase the red blood corpuscles; he believes in going about this in nature's own way. Years ago, in his active practice, he found that an alternative extract of certain herbs and roots, put up without the use of alcohol, would put the liver, lungs and heart into fuller and more complete action. This medicine he called Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. By assimilating the food eaten, it nourishes the blood, and instead of the ill-shaped corpuscles, the person's blood takes on a rich red color and the corpuscles are more nearly round. Nervousness is only the cry of the starved nerves for food, and when the nerves are fed on rich red blood the person loses those irritable feelings, sleeps well at night and feels refreshed in the morning.

KNOWLEDGE IS POWER.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

LESSON VIII, SECOND QUARTER, INTERNATIONAL SERIES, MAY 22.

Text of the Lesson, Mark x. 35-45. Memory Verses, 45-45—Golden Text, Mark x. 45—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

[Copyright, 1904, by American Press Association.]

Since last lesson we have passed over the record of Luke xvi. 1, to xviii. 34, the last portion from Luke xviii. 15, being found also in Matthew and Mark, the story of the empty, helpless, dependent little children whom He blessed and the rich young ruler who went away as he came, full of himself, his righteousness and his possessions. The saying stands, "He hath filled the hungry with good things, and the rich He hath sent empty away" (Luke i. 53). The disciples emptied themselves of such as they had for His sake. As Peter said, "We have left all and have followed Thee" (Mark x. 28), and our Lord said that in the regeneration, when He shall sit upon twelve thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel (Matt. xix. 28), and that those who forsake all for His sake and the gospel shall not only have a great reward hereafter, but shall receive a hundredfold (that is, 10,000 per cent) in this present time, with a good investment which brings 10 per cent or less and virtually deplese the Lord's 10,000 per cent.

As to the persecutions we may be called upon to endure, Paul says that they are not worthy to be compared with the glory (Rom. viii. 18) and that they all work out for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory (II Cor. iv. 17). Our Lord is now on His way to Jerusalem to offer Himself a sacrifice for the sins of the world, and for at least the third time He plainly foretells what He is about to suffer, but this time a little more fully. He said that He would be mocked and spitefully entreated and spit on and scourged and crucified, but that the third day He would rise again and that all this was written by the prophets concerning Him. How strange to read that, although this seems to us so plain, they understand none of these things" (Comp. Matt. xx. 17-19, and Luke xviii. 31-34).

We see how little interest they took in His predicted sufferings, or, rather, that they did not receive a word of it, by the fact, with which our lesson opens, that James and John, or, according to Matthew, their mother for them, asks that he will do for them whatever they desire, and that is that they may sit, one on His right hand and the other on His left, in His kingdom. How utterly out of sympathy they were, how lonely He was! No one understood Him, not even the disciples whom He loved, who leaned upon His bosom. They did not understand because they did not believe, and only thus were His sayings hid from them. "Through faith we understand" (Heb. xi. 3).

Something seemingly worse than even the request of James and John is recorded as having occurred on the very night before His crucifixion. He had eaten the passover with them and was speaking of one of them who should betray Him when there was a strife among them which of them should be accounted the greatest (Luke xxii. 21-24). It seems an almost impossible thing for believers to get wholly rid of some self seeking even in Christian work and to live to exalt the Lord and not to be filled with the Spirit He will use it, for He always glorifies Christ.

Our Lord said, "Ye know not what ye ask" (verse 28). We are apt to be so out of fellowship with Him that even when we plead John xiv. 13, 14, we may be asking amiss, because He may see in our hearts some desire for the honor of self or church or denomination or our particular society rather than His glory only. His searching question, "Can ye drink of the cup that I drink of and be baptized with?" we might think would have opened their eyes, but they are blinded by their ambition and thoughtlessly answer, "We can." They did not receive what He had said about His sufferings and therefore did not understand what He meant by His cup and baptism. We do well to note how He looked upon His sufferings, speaking of them all in this wise, "The cup which My Father hath given Me" (John xvii. 11), and we are learning a good lesson when we learn to see God in everything, seeing people and circumstances through God, seeing Jesus only (Mark ix. 8).

I find it necessary to emphasize that, while the precious blood of Christ, and that alone, can make us fit for the presence of God, all that comes to us after we are saved is necessary to fit us for our place in His kingdom and for our reign with Him. The Christian life would be more easy and restful than many seem to find it if they would only believe Eph. ii. 10, and let God daily guide them in the good works He has prepared for them, saying concerning all that comes, "This is prepared for me."

He emptied Himself and humbled Himself unto the death of the cross for us, wherefore God also hath highly exalted Him (Phil. ii. 7-9). Humility is true greatness. Therefore be humble if you would be great; be faithful if you would be rewarded; "God resisteth the proud and giveth grace to the humble" (I Pet. v. 5, 6). "Hereby perceive we the love of God because He laid down His life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren" (I John iii. 16). We cannot ransom any by even laying down our lives—He has provided the only and all sufficient ransom—but we can be willing to minister the good news to others even at the cost of laying down our lives in doing so.

CATARRH A COMMON COMPLAINT.

Catarrh begins with a stubborn cold in the head, inflammation or soreness of the membrane or lining of the nose, discharge of mucus matter, headaches, neuralgia and difficult breathing, and even in this early stage into the throat and stomach, and the blood becomes polluted and the system contaminated.

I had a continual headache, my cheeks had grown purple, my nose was always stopped up, my breath had a sickening and disgusting odor, and I coughed incessantly. I heard of S. S. S. and commenced to use it and after taking several bottles I was cured and have never since had the slightest symptom of the disease.

Miss MARY L. STORM, Northwest Cor. 7th and Felix Sts., St. Joseph, Mo.

It affects the kidneys and stomach as well as other parts of the body. It is a constitutional disease and as inhaling mixtures, salves, ointments, etc., are never more than palliative or helpful, even in the beginning of Catarrh, what can you expect from such treatment when it becomes chronic and the whole system affected? Only such a remedy as S. S. S. can reach this obstinate, deep-seated disease and purge the blood of the diseased blood, and the inflamed membranes are healed and the excessive secretion of mucus ceases when new, rich blood is coming to the diseased parts, and a permanent cure is the result.

S. S. S. is guaranteed purely vegetable and a reliable remedy for Catarrh in all stages. Write if in need of medical advice; this will cost you nothing.

MANTLE OF BISHOP DUDLEY FALLS ON DR. JOHN G. MURRAY.

Baltimore Divine Elected on Second Ballot.
--Dr. Mason and Dr. Lloyd Were Voted For.

DIOCESAN FINANCES IN GOOD CONDITION.

MEMORIAL PROPOSED

To Honor the Memory of the Great Prelate With $100,- 000 Episcopate Fund.

MEET IN LOUISVILLE

From Tuesday Daily.
ON THE SECOND BALLOT
THIS AFTERNOON, THE REV.
DR. JOHN G. MURRAY, OF BAL-TIMORE, WAS ELECTED BISH-OP OF THE DIOCESE OF KEN-TUCKY.

The second day's session of the Seventy-sixth annual council of the Kentucky Diocese of the Episcopal church met this morning in Grace church at 9:30 and after devotional services went into business session at 10:10, the meeting being called to order by the president, Rev. Dr. J. G. Minnigerode. The minutes of yesterday's session were read and several corrections ordered to be made. A number of motions were made on various subjects, but the election of a bishop having been set for 10:30 and that time having arrived, the order of the day was called for and the election was taken up.

Responsibility Impressed.

Before entering into this matter President Minnigerode made a brief but earnest address calling attention to the importance of the election and the responsibility of the members of the council whose duty it was to name Bishop Dudley's successor. After this a prayer was offered that the council should receive divine guidance in the selection of a proper man for the office of bishop. President Minnigerode then announced that it would require fourteen votes of the laity and ten of the clergy in order to elect a bishop.

Nominations Made.

Nominations then being declared to be in order, Rev. Dr. Chas. E. Craik, of Louisville presented the name of Rev. Dr. John G. Murray, rector of St. Michaels and All Angels church of Baltimore, Md. His speech in offering the name of Rev. Mr. Murray was very eulogistic. When Rev. Mr. Craik had concluded, Rev. George C. Abbutt, pastor of Grace church of this city placed in nomination, Rev. Dr. John K. Mason, rector of St. Andrew's church of Louisville. Mr. Abbutt spoke only a few minutes but was earnest and forceful in presenting the claims of his candidate.

Following him Mr. William A. Robinson, of Louisville, arose and in a lengthy address seconded the nomination of Rev. Mr. Murray. Mr. Robinson presented the qualifications of Mr. Murray minutely and told of a trip made by himself and two other gentlemen to Baltimore for the purpose of hearing Dr. Murray preach and investigate his qualifications and of the satisfactory result of their visit. When he had concluded Mr. Hunter Wood, Sr., seconded the nomination of Rev. Dr. Mason in a few well chosen remarks. When Mr. Wood had taken his seat, the time for adjournment having arrived, a motion to this effect was made but was strenuously objected to by a number of delegates who wished a ballot to be taken before adjournment. Finally a motion to adjourn until 1:30 o'clock was carried.

The Election.

Immediately upon the reassembling of the Episcopal council this afternoon, Dr. J. G. Minnigerode placed in nomination Rev. Dr. Arthur S. Lloyd, of New York, general secretary of the board of missions. A number of speeches in favor of the candidates were made and balloting was begun at 2 o'clock.

The first ballot showed that twenty-one votes of the laity had been cast, number necessary to election fourteen. Eighteen votes of the clergy were cast, number necessary to election, ten. The result of the first ballot was: Vote of the clergy--For Dr. Mason 7, for Dr. Murray 9, for Dr. Lloyd 2. Vote of the laity: For Dr. Mason 4, for Dr. Murray 17. The result of the second ballot showed that Dr. Murray was elected bishop, the vote being as follows: Vote of the clergy: For Dr. Murray, 11, for Dr. Mason 5, for Dr. Lloyd 2. Vote of the laity: For Dr. Mason 4, for Dr. Murray 17.

Dr. Mason arose and in a brief speech heartily thanked all who had supported him and moved that the election of Dr. Murray be made unanimous. The motion carried. The following committee was appointed by the chair to notify Dr. Murray of his election as bishop: Rev. Dr. John K. Mason, Rev. Dr. C. E. Craik and Rev. Dr. J. G. Minnigerode and Messrs. A. L. Terry, W. A. Robinson and H. W. Barrett.

Deputies Elected.

A large part of the second session of the council was consumed in the election of deputies to the triennial general convention which will meet in Boston next October and resulted as follows: Clerical deputies--Rev. Dr. John K. Mason, Rev. Dr. J. G. Minnigerode, Rev. Dr. Reverdy Estill and Rev. Dr. C. E. Craik, all of Louisville. Supplemental deputies--Rev. L. W. Rose, of Henderson; Rev. George C. Abbutt, of Hopkinsville; Rev. W. K. Marshall, of Owensboro, and Rev. L. E. Johnson, of Louisville. Lay deputies--W. A. Robinson and A. E. Richards, of Louisville; R. W. Covington, of Bowling Green, and James E. Rankin, of Henderson. Supplemental deputies--C. F. Johnson, R. A. Robinson, A. L. Terry and C. H. Pettit, of Louisville. Breckinridge Castleman was re-elected treasurer of the diocese, and the standing committees were re-elected.

Bishop's Salary.

The salary of the bishop of Kentucky was fixed at $4,000 a year. The election of a bishop to succeed the late Rt. Rev. Thomas Underwood, Dudley was made the order of business for 10:30 o'clock this morning.

A resolution was adopted by a standing vote thanking the rector of Grace church, the vestry, members and citizens of Hopkinsville for kindnesses and courtesies extended to the visiting delegates.

It was decided to hold the next meeting of the council in Christ Church Cathedral, Louisville, on May 14, 1905.

Memorial Plan.

Breckinridge Castleman addressed the council urging that action be taken looking to a worthy memorial to the late Bishop Dudley. He suggested that it should be an Episcopate endowment fund of $100,000, a movement, he said, which was near the great prelate's heart, and which, had he lived, would have been inaugurated at the celebration of the thirtieth anniversary of the bishop's consecration. The fund is now $24,900. Mr. Castleman's motion that a committee to consist of three clergymen and three laymen be appointed to consider the matter of a suitable memorial and report at the next meeting of the council, was unanimously adopted. The committee will be named later.

The finance committee reported the finances of the council in good condition, with all outstanding obligations paid and a balance of $1,182.47 in the treasury.

Missionary Meeting.

Last night in Grace church an interesting missionary meeting was held. Three excellent addresses were made. Archdeacon Benton spoke on the need of chapels at missionary stations. Mr. W. A. Robinson, treasurer of the band of diocesan mission, discussed how money can be raised for church extension in the diocese, and Mr. R. A. Robinson, of Louisville, spoke of the layman in missionary work.

Tonight's Program.

Tonight at 8 o'clock, the Rt. Rev. Dr. C. M. Beckwith, bishop of Alabama, will deliver an address, his subject being "Church Training as Seen in the Book of Common Prayer." This promises to be a rare treat. Bishop Beckwith will remain over and preach and administer confirmation tomorrow night.

Sunday Sermons.

(From Monday's Daily)
The service Sunday morning was conducted by the Rev. J. G. Minnigerode, D. D., rector of Calvary church, Louisville, who was assisted by Archdeacon Benton, of Louisville, and the Rev. George C. Abbutt, rector of Grace church. The litany was impressively read and holy communion was celebrated. The sermon by the Rev. C. P. Rodefer, the priest in charge of the missions at Russellville and Guthrie, was a worthy eulogy of Bishop Dudley. His text was Isaiah 8:10--"Say ye to the righteous that it shall be well with him." He described the great churchman as a man and Christian so rare and admirable that one was confronted with an embarrassment of riches in particularizing his finest qualities. He placed oratory a chief among the bishop's magnificent gifts. He told of his ripe scholarship, his splendid administration of the affairs of the diocese, his exceptional ability as a presiding officer, his uncommon common sense, and of his tact and diplomacy.

A Great Man.

"He was," said Mr. Rodefer, "strong, pure, true, lovely and grand in his Christian manhood." Sunday afternoon there was a large children's service at the church, and able addresses were delivered by the Rev. Dr. Minnigerode and Rev. Dr. John K. Mason, rector of St. Andrew's church, Louisville. Rev. T. G. Brown, colored, of Louisville, preached at the colored Episcopal chapel. At eight o'clock Sunday night there was evening prayer, and the Rev. L. W. Rose, of Henderson, preached a fine sermon on missions.

Officers Elected.

Holy communion was celebrated this morning at seven o'clock. The council was called to order at ten o'clock, following morning prayer, by Archdeacon Benton. By unanimous vote, Rev. Dr. J. G. Minnigerode, of Louisville, was elected president of the council. Archdeacon Benton and the Rev. George C. Abbutt, rector of Grace church of this city, were placed in nomination for secretary, and the former was elected, the vote being 19 to 17. The archdeacon declined to accept the office and Mr. J. J. Saunders, former assistant secretary, was unanimously elected. Mr. Saunders appointed Archdeacon Benton as assistant secretary.

Mr. Rodefer Thanked.

A resolution was passed cordially thanking Rev. C. P. Rodefer, of Russellville, for his sermon of Sunday eulogizing Bishop Dudley, and six hundred copies were ordered printed. Five hundred will be distributed in the state and the others presented to the bishop's widow. The rules of order of the last council were adopted. After hearing reports and appointing committees the council adjourned at noon until 2:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Manner of Election.

The manner of electing a bishop is prescribed by the rules of the church and it takes several weeks to finally elect.

At the election in the council the clerical and lay delegates vote apart. The two bodies have an equal number of votes and the successful candidate must have a majority of both. But the matter does not end here. When the council agrees on a candidate, the matter is then referred to the various standing committees of the dioceses, which number about seventy or eighty.

If the standing committees endorse the action of the council then the choice of the clerical and lay delegates must receive the indorsement of the church bishops, who number about eighty. If this indorsement is received, the candidate becomes bishop-elect. At a later date he will be consecrated to his work as bishop of the diocese of Kentucky. Thus it will be seen that it will require no little time to elect a successor to Bishop Dudley, even if the council of the Kentucky diocese reaches an early agreement.

The delegates to the council consist of the rector of each parish and three of the laity. The clerical delegates each have one vote while the lay delegates each have one-third of a vote.

MRS TANDY'S DEATH

HIGHLY ESTEEMED LADY
PASSES AWAY.

Had Been Ill For Two Weeks
of a Complication of Diseases.

(From Saturday's Daily)
Mrs. Kate Jesup Tandy, the beloved wife of Capt. David R. Tandy, died this morning at her home on East Seventh street. This announcement will come as a shock to many of her friends as it was not widely known that her illness was critical. She had been confined to her bed for two weeks with a complication of diseases. The end came this morning about 11:30 o'clock. Mrs. Tandy was about fifty years of age and was a daughter of the late James Jesup, a foremost citizen of Hopkinsville. Besides her husband and seven children, four sons and three daughters, survive her. Her eldest daughter, who resides in Ft. Smith, Ark., and her second daughter, Miss Susie Tandy, who is in Mississippi will arrive here Sunday. Mrs. Roy Threkkald, formerly Miss Lucy Tandy, is expected tonight from Salem. Mr. Everett Tandy, of Shelbyville, Tenn., arrived shortly before her death, and her eldest son, Mr. Harry G. Tandy will come tomorrow from Frankfort. Her second son, Mr. T. G. Tandy resides here. Mr. Jesup Tandy who is in the regular army cannot be here. She leaves two sisters, Mrs. W. S. Davidson and Mrs. J. D. Morris, and a brother Mr. James Jesup. Mrs. Tandy was a member of the Christian church. Funeral services have not been arranged.

PEOPLE AND THINGS

TALKS FEELINGLY.—A well known young man of Hopkinsville who has been married about a year says: "Never vow that there is anything on earth that you just will not do. I made a vow in my early days that I would never milk a cow, but am forced to break that solemn resolution twice every day."

A FISH TALE.—Yesterday the porter at McKee's grocery opened a barrel of fish which were packed on ice, and lying right at the top was a large Buffalo which was alive. The fish was placed in a tub of water and placed on the sidewalk where it attracted much attention yesterday. The barrel of fish was shipped from Union City, Ky., during the afternoon of Thursday, reaching this city at 11 o'clock that night over the Illinois Central. The barrel remained in the express office the rest of the night and was opened about seven o'clock yesterday morning, making a total of about eighteen hours the fish was out of water.

WHERE HE SAW HIM.—"I believe I have seen you somewhere before," said Thomas J. Drewry, of Louisville, as he approached and grasped the hand of Hunter Wood, of Hopkinsville.

"Yes," replied Mr. Wood seemingly in dead earnest; "the last time I saw you you were in the Western Asylum for the Insane down at Hopkinsville."

Mr. Drewry smiled and said nothing as he had tried to "start something." He was at the asylum as a member of the legislative committee—Louisville Courier-Journal.

WHEELER'S CONTRIBUTION.—Post Wheeler, of the New York Press, who has made many friends during his visits to Hopkinsville, is endeavoring to introduce a new expression into the language. It is "quite-a." As, "Quite-a fall of snow this morning." "Yes, quite-a."

CASTLES IN THE AIR.—"Castles in the Air" is the title of the delightful creation of Gov. Bob Taylor's fancy which Hopkinsville people will hear at the opera house on the night of the 30th inst. This lecture is entirely new, and is in Bob Taylor's inimitable style. While abounding in humor, side-splitting anecdotes and the entire gamut of songs from the crooning lullaby to the rollicking melody of corn husking song, the lecture is pervaded by the sanest philosophy of life, and while it pleases the listener immensely as he hears it, there is also something remembered to make life happier.

BEST SELLING BOOKS.—The six best selling books in New York this week were taken in the following order:

"The Memoirs of a Baby," Josephine Daskam.

"Sir Mortimer," Mary Johnston.

"The Deliverance," Ellen Glasgow.

"Cap'n Eri," Joseph Lincoln.

"In the Bishop's Carriage," Miriam Michelson.

"The Wings of the Morning," Louis Tracy.

TRY THIS.—To develop the brain give it exercise. Here is something that will serve to agitate the cells of the brain tissue and improve the mental power. It is later and better than "How Old Is Ann?" It looks simple; try it:

"If a brick weighs seven pounds and a half a brick, how much does a brick and a half weigh?"

That is the brick problem. If you think you can solve it send your solution, worked in your own way, to the New Era and it will be printed. It is not a gold brick, just a common brick, and you may try algebra or any other method.

WHEN TO EAT.—A prolific cause of chronic indigestion is eating from habit, and simply because it is meal time and others are eating. To eat when not hungry is to eat without relish, and food taken without relish is worse than wasted. Without relish the salivary glands do not act, the gastric fluids are not freely secreted, and the best of foods will not be digested. Many perfectly harmless dishes are severely condemned for no other reason than they were eaten perfunctorily and without relish and due insatiation.

Hunger makes the plainest foods enjoyable. It causes vigorous secretion and outpouring of all the digestive fluids—the sources of ptyalin, pepsin, trypsin, etc., without a plentiful supply of which no foods can be perfected.

Wait for an appetite, says the Dietetic and Hygienic Magazine, if it takes a week. Fasting is one of the saving graces. It has a spiritual significance only through its great physical and physiological importance. If breakfast is a bore or lunch a matter of indifference cut one or both of them out. Wait for distinct and unmistakable hunger, and then eat slowly. If you do this you need ask few questions as to the propriety and digestibility of what you eat, and it need not be predigested!

TASK FOR SPELLERS.—The best spellers, the best educated people, the most scholarly persons, will find it difficult to write the following sentence from dictation, and spell every word of it correctly. Whenever you desire to call down some "know all," this sentence will floor him: "It is disagreeable to witness the unparalleled embarrassment of a harassed peddler gauging the symmetry of a peeled pear."

TIME IS UP.—The regular quadrennial weighing of the United States mail on the railroad lines in the second contract section ended at midnight Tuesday by direction of the second assistant postmaster general. This work has been in progress since February 17, a period of eighty-four days.

The drug store of Mr. Jas. O. Cook was entered last night and about $10 in money was taken from the cash register. The thief gained entrance by forcing a rear window and made his escape without leaving any clue. Nothing else was taken.

JURY WAS FOR HIM

LESLIE AUBREY TUGGLE
GOES FREE

Moot Court at Opera House
Friday Night Was a Great Success.

(From Saturday's Daily)
"WE, THE JURY, FIND THE DEFENDANT NOT GUILTY."
"JULIA ARNOLD, FOREMAN."

That was the verdict of the "twelve good girls and true" who held in their fair hands the fate of Leslie Aubrey Tuggle, charged with malicious mischief. Among the feminine contingent of the large and cultivated audience attending the trial the verdict was a popular one, though the sterner sex left the opera house deprecating the queer quality in women that prevents their sympathizing with heart-crushed and jilted sisters.

Mr. Tuggle nobly made a martyr of himself in the good cause for which the trial was arranged. He created a most excellent impression by his manly bearing and modest demeanor and in the witness box quite covered himself with glory by his clever and convincing testimony. It will be a matter of general regret to the citizens of this community to learn that he has accepted a business offer from Selma, Alabama and will remove from Hopkinsville in a few weeks. He is a young gentleman of sterling worth and will be greatly missed in social circles.

The trial last night was a thorough success despite the unlucky coincidence of its being on Friday and the 18th. Fortunately nobody connected with the case was superstitious. There was abundant fun for nearly three hours, and all who appeared in the trial acquitted themselves with great credit. Judge Joe McCarroll, as special judge, presided with characteristic dignity and Deputy Sheriff T. J. Tate, Circuit Clerk Claud Clark and Policeman Jack Boyd faithfully performed their respective functions. The stage was a perfect reproduction of a bar of justice, and the curtain ascended on lawyers, witnesses and the complainants, who stood as the judge and officers of the court entered. Deputy Sheriff Tate called his eyes in stentorian tones and the clerk read the minutes in usual form. When the case of the commonwealth vs. Leslie Aubrey Tuggle was called both sides announced ready. Commonwealth's Attorney John Feland and Mr. T. C. Underwood represented the prosecution and Judge W. T. Fowler and Mr. C. M. Meacham the defense. The defendant was brought into court by Officer Boyd amid rounds of applause.

The following jury was impaneled: Miss Julia Arnold, foreman; Mrs. Manning Brown; Misses Katie Quick, Bessie Russell, Annie McPherson, Willie Rust, Minnie Armistead, Lalla Dennis, Susie Cox, Nell Donaldson, Edith Boulware and Mary Graham Starling.

Commonwealth Attorney Feland stated the case for the prosecution and read the indictment which charged the said Tuggle with unlawfully, wilfully, maliciously, and with a fixed purpose of his own, endeavoring by soft speech, the recital of poetry, and the singing of songs and by other arts and devices unknown to the grand jury, to deceive, injure and pain Joy Herndon, Jean McKee, and Mary Jones, and "other good female citizens of Christian county whose names are to this grand jury unknown," by trifling with their affections, well knowing at the time that said citizens before mentioned were young and tender, unsophisticated in worldly ways, and easily susceptible to the charms and machinations of the accused Leslie Aubrey Tuggle. "Against the peace and dignity of the commonwealth of Kentucky and all good citizens resident therein."

The defense waived formal arraignment.

The commonwealth introduced Misses Herndon, McKee and Jones,

A recruiting station for the United States army has been opened at the office of Dr. R. F. McDaniel and is the charge of Sergeant C. W. Beatty, of Nashville, Tenn., who will be in the city for some time. Already there have been a number of applications for enlistment by young Hopkinsville and Christian county men. Applicants must be between the ages of 21 and 35, unmarried, of good antecedents and habits and free of bodily defects and disease.

Landed Fish.

Col. Bill Bamberger is hobbling about the streets, using a cane and with his hand badly bruised as a result of falling off a cliff while out fishing a few days ago. He was sitting on a low bluff fishing when he hooked a fine trout and in the excitement of landing him he lost his balance and fell several feet. He was partially stunned but held to the fish and finally got him out.

Talmage Sermon

By Rev. Frank De Witt Talmage, D.D.

Los Angeles, Cal., May 15.—A timely gospel for the great multitude who cross the ocean at this season or who journey on any waters, whether for pleasure or business, is today the theme of the preacher. The text is Acts xviii, 30. "Then they were all of good cheer."

Have you ever followed the sea? In these days of multiplied facilities for ocean travel, when mammoth liners, equipped like floating palaces, carry tens and hundreds of thousands of passengers to and fro across the seas, with a sense of security added to the maximum of comfort, we little think of the discomforts attendant upon the ocean voyages of half a century ago. But, though the conditions of sea travel have so vastly improved in recent years that a journey across the Atlantic or up the Mediterranean is no longer an undertaking to be dreaded, there are still many traditions of the sea which time has not materially changed. If you have traveled much upon the ocean, you must know that there are superstitious sailors who dislike to carry ministers, or, as they call them, "sky pilots," in their ships. Ever since the recast of the ship, because of a Mediterranean cyclone, because he would persist in going to Tarsish when God told him to go to Nineveh, there have been sailors who believe the presence of a minister upon their ship means head winds and storms and disasters and misfortunes. This prejudice against carrying a minister, like the prejudice against carrying a corpse or the starting of a voyage on a Friday, has been gradually getting less and less as sailors have become better educated. Only a few months ago a great liner set out from our shores for the Holy Land carrying among her passengers several hundred ministers of the gospel. But in olden times the sailors would look with very distrustful eyes upon any man in clerical garb who might cross their gangplank. The mutterings in the fore-cabin were loud and deep if two or more missionaries happened to be enrolled at the same time on the ship's passenger list.

Rev. Dr. James McGregor Alexander, the honored missionary of India, told me that when he and his wife and five other missionaries in 1895 set sail for India the sailors were in almost open mutiny at the idea of carrying such a dangerous cargo of human freight, but when they arrived in Calcutta, after a long four months' voyage of unprecedented clear weather, those sailors were so surprised that instead of considering their ministerial passengers "Jonahs" they looked upon them as "fair weather" angels. So completely had their opinion changed that they told their captain, who knew of their former foreboding, that they wished the missionaries were going back with them on their return voyage.

Paul in the Storm.
Superstition, however, is not easily eradicated. This prejudice against ministerial passengers has survived for centuries. Yet in the scene of my text we have an instance of its being overcome. Here is Paul, a landsman, a prisoner, a missionary, so to speak, and the confidence of the crew that they heed his warnings and follow his suggestions. It was, too, in a crisis when nautical skill was needed that they listened to him. There was a storm raging of unusual violence. The dreaded hurricane they called euroclydon was lashing the Mediterranean into a fury. There was darkness even at midday; all reckoning lost, all hope given up. Then the 275 persons on board turned to this little Jewish missionary for guidance and encouragement. They had begun the voyage against his advice. They might be prejudiced against him as a preacher and a prisoner, but they listened to him when he addressed them, bidding them be of good cheer. "And when he had thus spoken he took bread and gave thanks to God in presence of them all, and when he had broken it he began to eat. Then were they all of good cheer, and they also took some meat."

Why were the crew and the passengers of this Alexandrian corn ship happy of heart? First, because faith always begets faith, and confidence confidence, and good cheer good cheer. The belief which Paul felt that "there should be no loss of any man's life, but of the ship," was, by his personal example, instilled into the hearts and minds of those by whom he was surrounded. We know that cowardice is infectious. We know that when a ship is sinking at sea there is liable to be such a rush for the boats that a panic may ensue. Then the captain, knowing well that only by order and equanimity is there hope for the safety of any, will draw his pistol, and, with determined men, declare that he will shoot the first man who dares to order in forcing his way into the lifeboats. We know that when a regiment is retreating the charge of an enemy the colonel will take his position in the rear of the line and shoot down any cowardly soldier who would turn and flee. If one soldier were allowed to run to the rear, the whole regiment, like a herd of terror-stricken cattle, might be stampeded with fear. If cowardice be infectious, why may not hope also be infectious? Why is not the calm mind of a Paul able to steady the nerves and make hopeful hearts of those who before had no hope of being saved from a watery grave?

What Makes Men Heroes.

In the storms and trials of life how often have courage and fortitude been inspired by the example of some man strong in faith and undaunted in his confidence in God! Men will believe in Christ's power to save when they see a man whose reliance on him keeps them calm in the presence of death. When Hugh Latimer, the dying martyr, turned to the trembling Ridley, who was being tied to the stake at the same time that he was being tied, and said, "Be of good comfort, Master Ridley; and play the man; we shall this day light such a candle by God's grace in England as I trust shall never be put out," at once Nicholas Ridley became a man. His nerves ceased their quivering, and he was able to die as a Christian hero. When the frightened patriot Heralut de Secheles ascended the scaffold, over which hung the glittering guillotine, and saw the surging French mob below him, he was as pale as death. His knees trembled and his teeth chattered. But when he turned and looked at the intrepid Danton by his side, who scornfully said to the executioner, "Man, wait a moment; let the people have a good look and see how a brave man can die," Heralut de Secheles became as brave as Danton was brave. "I well remember myself," wrote an old soldier, "as a frightened boy trembling in the ranks at Gettysburg. With fear I saw the Confederate troops being massed for Pickett's famous charge. All that I could do was to restrain myself from dropping my gun and running to the rear. But suddenly every cowardly feeling in my heart was stilled when I heard a great shout and saw the most magnificent man I ever looked at calmly riding down the lines. Calmly and clearly he spoke as he said: 'Steady, men, steady! We must hold these lines. Steady, steady!' When I saw Winfield S. Hancock thus ride along, utterly oblivious to all personal danger, my heart became that of a hero. I became like unto him who at that moment was my great exemplar."

Yes, yes. We all know what the power of a personal example means in life. We know that when men are brave about us they make us brave. We know that when men are true they make us true. We know that when men are noble examples of Christian faith they inspire us with like Christian faith. So when Paul, amid the shriekings and groanings and heaving and bombardments of the Mediterranean whirlwind, calmly and deliberately stepped forth and said, "Men, I exhort you to be of good cheer, for there shall be no loss of any man's life, but of the ship," then the sailors and passengers stopped and said to themselves: "Why, that is strange talk. We cannot understand it, but Paul must have had a supernatural vision, or else he could not have spoken thus. You speak so positively, O preacher, that we believe you. What a God yours must be to inspire such confidence! Would that we had your faith and your religion." Men and women of the Christian life, are your actions and words living witnesses of your faith in the saving grace of Jesus Christ?

Nothing Means About Him.

Why are the crew and the passengers of this Alexandrian corn ship happy of heart? Because Paul kept holding up before them the mistakes of their past life in order that they might the more easily be led to follow in his way. Paul was not a mere taunter, a sneerer, a ridiculer, a tantalizer. He was not one of those mean, contemptible fellows who always stand around when anything goes wrong and say, "I told you so." He was not one of those miserable comforters of Job who are about as healing to the bleeding heart as a poultice of cayenne pepper or stinging nettles would be to a mangled arm caught in a press. But Paul was like a good physician who comes to an overworked man and says: "My friend, I told you if you did not hold up you would have a nervous breakdown. Now this breakdown has come. Therefore I want you now to trust me and do what I tell you to do, and then we will make you well." Paul in the same gentle way as the good physician stands before those helpless voyagers and says: "Friends, I told you not to loose from Crete. I told you that if we tried to make Rome during this winter equinoctial you would regret it. But now that this harm has come to you, I want you to obey my commands, and I promise, by the God whom I represent, that there shall be no loss of any man's life, but of the ship."

Cat and Mouse.

It is a contemptible characteristic to tell a man his faults and keep telling them, merely to glory in his misery, even as a fendish cat might tease and tantalize a little mouse and yet not kill it. It is a contemptible thing for a man to come around when your little child lies cold in death and say: "Well, so-and-so, I am sorry your baby is dead, but I knew she would die. I knew it when you called in Dr. Bigdow as your physician. He always kills more patients than he ever cures. I told you so. I told you so. If you had only followed my advice, your baby would be alive today." Can he bring the child back to life again? It is a mean, contemptible act in a man to come to you, after a financial disaster, and say, "Well, Jones, you were caught, were you? Just as I expected. Ah! you would not take my advice," when, in fact, the man never gave you any advice or offered any sensible plan by which you could get out of your threatened danger. But, though it is a mean and a contemptible act to ridicule the misfortunes of others for the joy you have in seeing other people suffer, it is justifiable to plead with a man to accept your advice in their reminding them that your did not stand forth in the midst of them and say: "Oh, men, the tornado will cease, and the billows of the sea shall lie down, and the sun will again break forth from behind the clouds, and, in gala day attire, we shall sail into the harbor of our destination." He did not prophesy a pleasant voyage with all friends gathered on the shore to greet them as they disembarked. He did not say, "We shall only be detained a few days and then hurrah for the pleasures of life in the city!" Oh, no; that was not Paul's way. He told the truth. He said: "Men, we shall be saved; but, like Job, we shall only escape as by the skin of our teeth. We must become waterlogged. We must beach our craft and it will be beaten and gnashed into kindlings. We must lose all our cargo and personal baggage. We shall be rescued alive, but that is all." Then, when the sailors saw the literal fulfillment of the prophecy of Paul, their faith in their leader and in their leader's God not only continued, but increased day by day.

Trial and Adversity.

I believe that in urging men to come to Christ we make a mistake when we do not frankly state the hardships and difficulties of the Christian life. There are, as every experienced Christian knows, sacrifices that must be made, privations that must be endured, struggles that must be fought. It is better that we acknowledge the fact, as Christ did when men came to him offering themselves as his disciples. If we fall to tell them that they must expect trial and perhaps adversity in following Christ they will consider that they have been deceived and will be disappointed and discouraged when they encounter trouble. As Paul told these men that they would have to battle with the waves and be in danger of death on that rocky coast before they reached safety, so we should tell men that the way to heavenly joys is often hard and toilsome. Paul demanded of those passengers and sailors of the Alexandrian corn ship the same sacrifices for their physical salvation which Hernando Cortes demanded of his followers for the conquest of Mexico. During one of his marches the Spanish soldiers became disaffected. Cortes assembled his men in line. "Men, some of you are grumbling," he said substantially. "Some of you want to know what rewards I have to offer you at this time. This is my answer." Then, drawing a line upon the ground with the edge of his sword, he pointed with his steel toward the great east and said, "On that side of this line are ease and comfort, home and friends and a life of ease in fair Spain." Then, pointing to the great west, he said: "Yonder are sickness and privation and hunger and cold and death. But yonder is the beautiful capital of the Montezumas. Which shall be yours? Choose ye this day as ye will. Choose ye as brave Castilians."

Christ today, like Paul, like Hernando Cortes, promises his followers not peace, but struggle and privation; not ease and comfort, but storm and suffering and trials and misery. But in the end, like Paul, Christ assures you of salvation. Aye, more than Paul offered to the shipwrecked sailors and passengers of the Alexandrian corn ship, Christ offers to you spiritual redemption for time and for eternity. Men and women, are you ready to face suffering and sacrifice in the name of Jesus Christ? Are you willing to believe him and trust in him, even in crises when your life seems a hopeless shipwreck?

"Courage, Christian Brother."

But why should not the passengers and crew of the Alexandrian corn ship be of good cheer? Did not the prophetic words of Paul literary corian true? When the mighty storm struck the beach what happened? Paul turned to the brave man about him and said, "Leap into the surf and swim for your lives." And these stout limbed men flung themselves into the seething waters and swam on until at last their feet touched the shore and they made ready to rescue their struggling friends. Some of the women, being in all probability strapped to spars, were lifted by the heaving billows and swept upon the rocks, where they were rescued. Some of the men may have come ashore clinging to boards and broken gunwales. At times it seemed as though they must be washed off, but somehow they are at last landed. So in the end of time and in the beginning of eternity all Christians shall be safely brought to the heavenly shores, through stress and storm and peril, it may be, but still safe. Yes, we will be there. We shall all be there. Courage, Christian brother. Fear not the perils of the passage. "Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled, though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof," the promise of Christ, like the words of Paul, shall come gloriously true.

Slacken no sail, brother,
At inlet or island;
Straight by the compass steer,
Straight for the highland.

Fear not the darkness,
Dread not the night,
God's word is thy compass,
Christ is thy light.

Crowd all thy canvas on,
Out through the foam.
It soon will be morning
And heaven be thy home.

Last of Queen Mary's Prisoners.

There is now standing only one stronghold in England in which Mary, queen of Scots, was imprisoned, and that is Bolton castle. It was built by the Lord Scrope who was lord chancellor in 1379. It was at Bolton castle that the Duke of Norfolk, then head of the Roman Catholic party, as is now the present Duke of Norfolk, made the proposal of marriage to Mary by which he hoped not only to serve the faith, but to make himself king. Instead of bringing him to the throne it brought him to the scaffold.

former advice would have saved them from getting into the trouble.

In order to erect a mansion it is often necessary to tear down and clear away the walls of an old family home. But no man has a right to tear down or destroy anything unless he can erect a better in its place. The most mischievous of all social reformers is the destructive iconoclast who has nothing to offer us in the place of the institutions he would tear down. We know our social system is imperfect, but we would not have it mended by an anarchist, who, like the leaders of the French revolution of 1793, would commence by demolishing the good and the evil together. It is easy enough to be a censorious critic. It is not so easy a matter to furnish a better for that which you deride. I remember many years ago, as an imaginative boy, I read that strange, weird, horrible story called "Caesar's Column." In fascination I followed its author step by step as he deftly tore the beautiful patterns of modern society into shreds. In horror I read on as he denounced the social status, not as the generation of a Noah was destroyed by this old earth as a waterlogged craft, shipping tidal wave after tidal wave, but as a huge column of piled up corpses. But as the years have passed by and boyish imagination has given place to sober thought the flames and the smoke arising from the funeral pyre of Caesar's column, embellished with dead bodies, have grown less and less. The great airships which circled about in the heavens as great flocks of destroying birds have collapsed. Why? Because I see as a man that, though Ignatius Donnelly might advocate the destruction of society by finding fault with it, yet with his brain he could not construct for us a better Utopia. Lake Paul, never ridicule a man, never probe for his faults, unless at the same time you can show him how to correct those faults. Never refer to a man's malady or deformity unless you can tell him of a doctor who can apply a remedy for it.

Religion That Helps.

Why were the crew and the passengers of the Alexandrian corn ship of good cheer? Because Paul was a man of Christian common sense as well as of supernatural visions. He knew that the only religion that could really help a man must be a religion that could help him in the present life as well as fit him for a life beyond the grave. It was not only the promise of safety in the future that he gave those people, but the sound common sense counsel of preparation, by keeping up their strength for insuring that safety.

"What are you driving at anyway?" says some one. "Is Paul a mere hygienic lecturer?" He is more than that, but he does not think it beneath his dignity, after seeing the vision of God, to tell the crew and the passengers of the Alexandrian corn ship to look after their physical necessities. He does not think it irreligious to gather the men and the women of the doomed ship together and say: "Men, you are going to be saved, but God will never do his part unless we are ready to do ours. Now, tomorrow we are going to all get safely to land, but there is to be a big drain upon our physical resources. Some of us are now completely fagged out. We have not had a good meal for nearly two weeks. Let the cooks go and prepare the most nourishing dinner they can; then let us by turns gather in the cabins, old and young alike, and eat a good, hearty repast. We need faith for the soul; we also need meat for the body. Some people think the most dramatic episode of Paul's life was when he stood upon Mars hill and argued with the Greek philosophers; others when he pleaded for his life before Agrippa. I think the most impressive dramatic incident was when he was standing upon the rocking, heaving deck of a vessel whose hull was gradually filling with water and telling the passengers and the crew to eat and look after their bodies, as God would surely save them on the morrow.

Care of the Body.

It is surprising how little some people care for the body in times of sickness. I heard my mother say some years ago: "I was just down to see Elder Nicholls. He was morbid and depressed. I said to him, 'What have you eaten today, Mr. Nicholls?' 'Oh,' he answered, 'I have taken nothing but a little tea and a cracker. I cannot eat.' 'My, I said, 'this will not do! You must eat, or you will never get strong.' So I went and cooked him an egg and made him some good toast and procured for him a little fruit, and before I left he was as bright and cheerful as a man could be. It does seem to me that half of our lack of faith in God comes from physical depletion and not from spiritual weakness." Yes, my mother was right. The same law that applied to Elder Nicholls of the Brooklyn tabernacle applied to the passengers and crew of the Alexandrian corn ship. When they saw Paul's faith they believed. When they had eaten and cared for the body they began to be of good cheer. My brother, when you do God's work, do not think it beneath your spiritual dignity to obey God's physical laws. Paul praying, a mighty example for us to look after the spiritual bodies; Paul eating food, a mighty example for us to care for our physical bodies.

Why were the crew and passengers of the Alexandrian corn ship of good cheer? Paul had not deceived them as to the manner of their coming rescue. He had bluntly yet clearly told them what would happen, and, as events were turning out just as he had described, they were not in the least astonished when the ship came within sight of land and they knew that she was doomed. Though the vessel might be lost, they felt that their own lives were to be saved.

Just read very carefully, if you will, the account of this prophecy. Paul

Nature Lends

Every one knows that Royal Baking Powder is absolutely pure. Hence the housewife uses it with implicit confidence and without question, and she is justified in so doing.

But how few realize that Royal Baking Powder in its chief ingredient is a direct product of the healthful and delicious grape! This constituent of the grape, crystallized and ground to an impalpable powder, is the cream of tartar which forms the active principle of every pound of Royal Baking Powder.

Fruit properties are indispensable to the healthfulness of the body, and those of the grape as used in the "Royal" are the most valuable and healthful of all.

Hence it is that Royal Baking Powder produces food superlative both in flavor and wholesomeness.

EXCELLENT ADDRESS BY BISHOP OF ALABAMA CLOSING THE COUNCIL.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

The Kentucky diocesan council adjourned Tuesday night after Bishop Beckwith's lecture to meet May 14 in Christ Church Cathedral in Louisville.

Last night at Grace church the bishop of Alabama delivered an address on "The Church's Method of Training Her Children."

In treating this subject the bishop took the "Book of Common Prayer" and from this book developed the church's system of instruction. The purpose of this address was to demonstrate the adaptability of the Book of Common Prayer as the text-book for Christian training. The impression left upon the minds of those who were present was that the church's system was not only accurate and definite, but within the easy reach of the average Sunday-school pupil and teacher.

The committee appointed to notify Dr. Murray of his election communicated by letter with him last night stating that they would wait upon him in person at his convenience. A despatch from Baltimore states that Dr. Murray will have nothing to say in reference to his election until he is officially notified.

No date can be set now for his consecration. His election must be referred to the various standing committees of the diocese, numbering about seventy-five. They will undoubtedly indorse the action of the council, and then the matter will be taken to the bishops of the church. Their indorsement will make Dr. Murray the bishop-elect, and then everything will be clear for his consecration to his work as bishop of the diocese of Kentucky.

Dr. Murray is rector of St. Michael's and All Angels' church in Baltimore, and the parish is the largest in Maryland. He is forty-seven years old, and is a man of handsome and commanding presence, being nearly six feet tall and weighing 180 pounds. His family consists of a wife, one son and three daughters. He is a native of Maryland, a typical southerner, and up to ten years ago was a highly successful business man of Birmingham, Ala. He was ordained in 1894. After having charge of missions in Alabama, he was called to the Church of the Advent, in Birmingham.

He declined to allow himself to be nominated for bishop of Alabama. After six years' service in Birmingham he accepted a call from St. Michael's and All Angels' church. He was elected bishop of Mississippi, but declined, feeling it his duty to remain in Baltimore. He is said to be the most popular preacher in that city. He is a man of great ability, and his success as a rector has been remarkable. As Bishop Dudley's successor he will be acceptable to every Episcopalian in the diocese.

The meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary during the session of the council was entirely successful and was greatly enjoyed by all who were present. The reports showed that this noble organization is doing splendid work and is proving an important factor in the church in this diocese.

HOPKINSVILLE WON.

DEFEATS CLARKSVILLE BY SCORE OF 7 TO 2.

Work That Delighted the Fans.—Cairo Loses Her First Game.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

	played	won	lost	per cent
Cairo	6	5	1	83.3
Henderson	7	4	3	56.6
Paducah	6	3	3	50.0
Vincennes	6	3	3	50.0
Hopkinsville	6	2	4	33.3
Clarksville	6	2	4	33.3

(From Thursday's Daily.)

Yesterday's game at the park was one to fill the heart of baseball lovers with delight, and the cup of joy of the fans of Hopkinsville was filled so full that it is still running over. After playing one of the fastest and most interesting games to be imagined the locals won out by the score of 7 to 2, their victory being due to heavy batting at opportune times. The run getting was started in the first inning when Mullen, the first man up, got a beautiful safe drive off the first ball pitched. He stole second and scored a few moments later on Armstrong's long line drive to center for two bases. Two more scores were made in the seventh, making the score 3 to 2 in favor of Hopkinsville. The game was clinched in the eighth when four runs were made. Morris, first man up, got a nice hit, and was advanced to second when Welch was hit by the pitcher. Both runners were advanced a base by Warner's clever bunt and then scored on Ranburger's three bagger to right field. Two more runs were added when Collins, the clever little catcher, dropped the ball over the left field fence for a home run. Clarksville was only able to score in the second and third innings. Harris pitched his first game of the season for Clarksville. He pitched a good game but it was Hopkinsville's day to win. Ferrell was on the slab for the locals and his work was all that could be desired. So far he has pitched two games and won both of them. The score:

By Inning	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	r	e	s
Hopk'ville	1	0	0	0	0	2	4	3	7	2	9	3
Clarksville	0	1	1	0	0	0	0	0	2	7	8	3

REPORT ON CROPS

SOME PROGRESS SHOWN IN KENTUCKY.

Wheat Improves in Sections But Corn Is Coming Up Slowly.

Growing crops made fairly good progress during the first part of the week, though the nights were rather cool. Light to moderate showers were general on the 13th and were very beneficial, but there followed a decided drop in temperature that checked the growth of plants. Light frosts occurred in many localities on the 15th, but it is thought that no serious damage will result. The weather and the condition of the soil were favorable to farm work, which is now, considering the backwardness of the season, well advanced.

Wheat continues to improve; in a good many localities in the western section very nearly an average yield will be made.

Corn is coming up slowly. Some of the early planted failed to germinate and cut worms are destroying the young plants, so considerable replanting will be necessary. Planting is about completed except on low lands, and many fields are receiving the first cultivation.

Tobacco plants are small, but generally healthy. Transplanting has begun in some of the southern counties.

Oats, rye, clover, grasses, pastures, potatoes and gardens are in fairly good condition.

Hemp is doing well, except that in some localities cut worms are damaging it.

In some of the principal fruit-growing counties fruit is promising, but as a whole the crop will be short, especially peaches and early apples. The berry crop will probably be about as good as usual.

CASTLES IN THE AIR

In commenting on Gov. Taylor's new lecture, Wednesday's Courier-Journal says:

"In one smooth, unbroken strain of melody, supplemented with dainty word pictures, rare and beautiful and apt quotations serene and sentimental, ex-Gov. Bob Taylor, of Tennessee, delivered his famous and favorite 'Castles in the Air' at Mauley's Theater last evening. To an audience whose highest expectation was fully realized he talked, laughed and joked with his characters as though they possessed real life, and many times he was forced to pause temporarily to allow his hearers to content themselves with hearty laughter at the advent of some timely tale. * * * Lifting his audience by degrees of oratorical flight, he led them to the pinnacle of sublimity only to precipitate them to earth again by a vein of the ridiculous." Gov. Taylor will lecture here on May 30.
